The Capital Stock above mentioned refers to the invested Capital represented by shares of stock outstanding.

Section 3. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the form and furnish the blanks upon request to make the annual report and fee and require the Secretary of State to examine the reports when received and if the Secretary of State so requires he shall furnish the information and keep such reports as he shall deem necessary and to the same extent as public records. He shall pay into the Treasury of the State under such such provision as the Legislature may determine all money collected under the provisions of this Act. Such assessment for printing form, post cards, clerical and other expenses found to be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act are appropriated from such funds not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars annually.

Section 4. The Secretary of State shall cause a notice of the requirements of this Act to be mailed to the last known address of every corporation doing business in the State of Florida which shall fail to file within thirty days after July first, the report called for herein and/or pay the tax provisions of this Act. Every corporation which shall fall to comply with the provisions of this Act within thirty days of such notice shall be deemed no longer exercising its charter or corporate privilege in this State.

Section 5. Penalty for Failure to File Report. Any corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this Act for six months shall not be permitted to maintain any action in any court of this state until such reports are filed and all fees due under this chapter paid.

Section 6. The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this Act: railroad companies, Fullman companies, banking and trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, co-operative marketing associations and corporations not for profit; these corporations and associations are exempt from the operation of this Act by being regulated by taxing excess taxes under provisions of law.

Section 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as to apply to a corporation that has been adjudged bankrupt or dissolved by order of the court, however, such corporations shall file a statement with the Secretary of State setting forth the facts in this respect but shall not be required to pay a tax.

Section 8. The Secretary of State shall mail statement as required in Section 4 to corporations of record subject to the provisions of this Act, giving notice of the amount of tax due and the date the report is due. The report is due at the time the notice is mailed, and the same shall be mailed five days before the tax is due. The report shall be mailed in a sealed envelope to each corporation and shall be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope in which the report shall be mailed.

Section 9. All statements required to be filed under this law shall be for the calendar year and shall be due to be filed on July first of each year and the tax payable thereon shall be due to be paid at that time.

Section 10. Any claim or section of this Act which for any reason, may be void or declared invalid may be eliminated and the remaining portions thereof shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be valid in the same manner and to the same extent as if such invalid clause or sections had not been incorporated therein.

Section 11. Any corporation paying the maximum fee herein provided for shall not be required to file any report whatsoever as required by the provisions of this Act.

Section 12. No par value stock; valuation. In the event the shares of stock of any such corporation shall be no par value, then for the purposes of this Act, each share shall be deemed or presumed to have value of at least one hundred dollars par value, which value may be overdrawn by actual proof submitted to the Secretary of State. For the purposes of this Act, the Department of State shall make such investigation as it may consider necessary and it shall examine the reports when received and if the Secretary of State so requires he shall furnish the information and keep such reports as he shall deem necessary and to the same extent as public records. He shall pay into the Treasury of the State under such provision as the Legislature may determine all money collected under the provisions of this Act. Such assessment for printing form, post cards, clerical and other expenses found to be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act are appropriated from such funds not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars annually.
