The Capital Stock above mentioned refers to the invested capital represented by shares of stock outstanding.

Section 2. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the form and furnish the blanks upon which such reports shall be made the Secretary of State to examine the correctness of the report and the Secretary of State to examine the correctness of the report. He shall pay into the State Treasury to be used for such purposes as the Secretary of State shall prescribe and all moneys collected under the provisions of this Act. Such amounts for printing forms, postage, clerical and other expenses referred to shall be actually necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act, to be promptly appropriated from such funds not to exceed ten thousand dollars in any one year.

Section 4. The Secretary of State shall cause a notice of the requirements of this Act to be mailed to the last known address of every corporation doing business in the State of Florida who shall fail to file within thirty days after July first, the report called for herein and/or pay the filing fee or tax herein imposed. Every corporation which shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Act within three months after July first of each year shall be deemed to be no longer exercising its charter or corporate privilege in this State.

Section 5. Any corporation failing to comply with the provisions of the Act, failing to pay the required privilege tax shall be dissolved and then be dissolved and the Secretary of State shall make up a list of the corporations of record in his office which have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act and shall mail a copy of such list to the Clerk of the Circuit Courts, and Civil Courts of Record, the Circuit Judges and the Justices of the Peace of this State.

Section 6. The following shall be excepted from the provisions of this Act: railroad companies, banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, credit companies, marketing associations and corporations not for profit; these corporations can no exception to the provisions of this Act being regulated by state taxing legislation or other provisions of law.

Section 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as to apply to a corporation which shall be adjudged bankrupt or dissolved by order of the court, however, such corporation shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of its assets and liabilities, and the Secretary of State shall set forth its status in this respect but shall not be required to pay a tax.

Section 8. The Secretary of State shall make a statement as required in Section 4 to corporations of record subject to the provisions of this Act, in the event that any corporation shall be dissolved by order of the court, the Secretary of State shall report to the court and the Secretary of State shall report to the court and the Secretary of State shall report to the court.

Section 9. All statements required to be filed under this Act shall be filed on or before the first day of the second month following the end of the fiscal year in which the statement is to be filed as provided in this Act.

Section 10. Any clause or section of this Act which is inoperative, in whole or in part, may be held invalid and the remaining portions thereof shall be valid and remain in full force and effect and the same extent as if such invalid clause or section had not been incorporated therein.

Section 11. Any corporation paying the maximum fee herein provided for shall not be required to file any report whatever as required by the provisions of this Act.

Section 12. In the event the shares of stock of any such corporations should be sold, or reacquired, then the purpose of this Act, such shares shall be deemed to have value of at least $100.00 per share, such presumption may be rebutted by the provisions of the Act, submitted to the Secretary of State. For the purpose of this Act the Secretary of State shall make such investigation as he may consider necessary and to such investigation as he may consider necessary and to such investigation as he may consider.
