Gentlemen:

Subject: FLORIDA POWER CORPORATION

Thank you for the information contained in your letter of August 5, 1963. Our letter of July 8 and the accompanying refund for $250 were in error. Your original check for $1,000 was correct for payment of capital stock tax due July 1, 1963. If you will return the refunded check, we will issue you a receipt for your 1963 capital stock tax.

Thank you for calling this matter to our attention. We regret any inconvenience our error may have caused you.

Sincerely,

TOM ADAMS
Secretary of State

Dear Mrs. Tonge:

Thank you for the refund check in the amount of $250 which reduced our Capital Stock Tax from $1,000 to $750.

We have asked our Tax Department for an explanation of this refund but they did not have an answer. Florida Power's common stock capitalization consists of 9,145,305 shares, par value $2.50.

We would appreciate an explanation of how the $750 tax is figured and will not deposit the check until we hear from you. When the amount of the tax is settled, we would also appreciate a receipt for the amount involved.

Very truly yours,
