Re: Florida Assurers, Inc. & National Telephone & Alarm Co., Inc.

To Whom it May Concern:

A few weeks ago we sent in our UBR reports for both of our corporations.
They were about five (5) weeks late.

We explained that due to an accident beyond our control and as a result of a neighboring building's careless actions, a fire spread to our office and did damage. During our office's repair period the day laborers routinely threw out our mail. We eventually found about four (4) month's worth of mail in an abandoned trash bin.

We sent in $150.00 for each company with a detailed explanation as to why we were late.
Is this not sufficient reason?

If not, why not?

We cannot afford another $800 and will consider re-incorporating after one year's time if the decision is not made to accept our original UBR reports with their $150.00 payments each.

Also note, these two corporations have been in existence since the 1960's with a perfect history of UBR payments!!!

Sincerely,

Sid Needelman, President
