ARTICLE III
(As Amended - April 18, 1969)

(a) Authorized Capital Stock. The number of shares of Capital Stock which this Corporation shall be authorized to have outstanding at any time is 5,500,000 shares, of which 5,000,000 shares shall be Common Stock with a par value of $5.00 per share, and 500,000 shares shall be Series Voting Preferred Stock without par value, each of which shares shall be entitled to the same vote as each share of Common Stock, all of which shares shall be issued fully paid and non-assessable.

(b) Series Voting Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors is authorized to amend these Articles of Incorporation from time to time to divide the Series Voting Preferred Stock into series and to determine the number of shares of each such series and the relative rights, preferences and limitations of the shares of each such series. Whenever the Board of Directors acts under the preceding sentence, it shall adopt a resolution setting forth its actions and stating the designations and number of shares, and the relative rights, preferences and limitations of the shares of each series thereby created or with respect to which it has made a determination or change, which rights, preferences and limitations may differ with respect to the various series, and shall execute and file in the office of the Secretary of State a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, as provided by law, with respect to such actions. Without limiting the foregoing the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to so fix and determine, with respect to each series:

- (1) The number of shares which shall constitute that series and the name or designation of that series;
- (2) The rate and the times at which dividends on that series shall be paid, and whether and the extent to which such dividends shall be cumulative or non-cumulative;
- (3) The right or rights, if any, of the holders of shares of that series to receive dividends payable on a parity with or in preference to the dividends payable on shares of any other class or series;
- (4) The preferential rights of the holders of shares of that series upon the liquidation of, or upon any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation;
- (5) The terms, if any, upon which the holders of the shares of that series may convert such shares into shares of any class or classes or of any series of any class or classes;
- (6) The terms and conditions, if any, on which shares of that series may be redeemed, including the redemption price or prices and the period or periods of such redemption;
- (7) The terms or amount of any sinking fund or purchase fund for the purchase or redemption of shares of that series; and
- (8) Any other relevant rights, preferences and limitations for that series.

(c) Common Stock. None of the shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to any preference over any other shares of such stock. The Common Stock is subject to all of the rights and preferences of the respective series of the Series Voting Preferred Stock. Subject to the foregoing provisions with respect to the Series Voting Preferred Stock, such dividends, payable in cash, stock or otherwise, as may be determined by the Board of Directors, may be declared and paid on the Common Stock from time to time out of funds lawfully available therefor. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of this Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, after the holders of the Series Voting Preferred Stock have been paid in full the sums to which they are then entitled, remaining net assets of this Corporation shall be distributed pro rata to the holders of the Common Stock.

(d) Preemptive Rights. Holders of Common Stock shall have preemptive rights, during a reasonable time and on reasonable conditions, both to be fixed by the Board of Directors, to subscribe pro rata for any additional shares of Common Stock, or other securities of the Corporation (including stocks, bonds, notes or debentures) convertible into Common Stock of the Corporation, which may hereafter be issued for cash, except that no preemptive rights shall exist to subscribe to the following securities when issued by the Corporation:
