this corporation may conduct and transact any business lawfully authorized and not prohibited by Chapter 608, Florida Statutes.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the corporation may subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, hold for investment or otherwise, sell, exchange, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, and dispose of, any and all securities, as such term is hereinafter defined, and to possess and exercise any and all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership of any and all such securities, including the right to vote thereon or assent with respect thereto for any and all purposes, and to issue or deliver in payment or exchange, in whole or in part for any securities, its own securities, or to make payment therefor by any other lawful means.

ARTICLE III

(a) Authorized Capital Stock. The number of shares of Capital Stock which this Corporation shall be authorized to have outstanding at any time is 10,500,000 shares, of which 10,000,000 shares shall be Common Stock with a par value of $5.00 per share, and 500,000 shares shall be Series Voting Preferred Stock without par value, each of which shares shall be entitled to the same vote as each share of Common Stock, all of which shares shall be issued fully paid and non-assessable.

(b) Series Voting Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors is authorized to amend these Articles of Incorporation from time to time to divide the Series Voting Preferred Stock into series and to determine

Whenever the Board of Directors acts under the preceding sentence, it shall adopt a resolution setting forth its actions and stating the designations and number of shares, and the relative rights, preferences and limitations of the shares of each series thereby created or with respect to which it has made a determination or change, which rights, preferences and limitations may differ with respect to the various series, and shall execute and file in the office of the Secretary of State a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, as provided by law, with respect to such actions. - (5) The terms, if any, upon which the holders of the shares of that series may convert such shares into shares of any class or classes or of any series of any class or classes;
- (6) The terms and conditions, if any, on which shares of that series may be redeemed, including the redemption price or prices and the period or periods of such redemption;
- (7) The terms or amount of any sinking fund or purchase fund for the purchase or redemption of shares of that series; and

(B) Any other relevant rights, preferences and limitations for that series.

(c) Common Stock. None of the shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to any preference over any other shares of such stock. The Common Stock is subject to all of the rights and preferences of the respective series of the Series Voting Preferred Stock. Subject to the foregoing provisions with respect to the Series Voting Preferred Stock, such dividends, payable in cash, stock or otherwise, as may be determined by the Board of Directors, may be declared and paid on the Common Stock from time to time out of funds lawfully available therefor. Upon any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of this Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, after the holders of the Series Voting Preferred Stock have been paid in full the sums to which they are then entitled, remaining net assets of this Corporation shall be distributed pro rata to the holders of the Common Stock.

(d) No preemptive rights shall exist for holders of Common Stock or other securities of the Corporation with respect to the issuance, distribution, or sale of additional shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Corporation.
