November 30, 1998

Dear Ms. Trevor,

Re. Doc. 587891

Please find enclosed my second check in the amount of $158.75 to cover the Corporation Filing Fee plus the fee for Certificate of Status. I believe it best to obtain this Certificate due the mix-up on the filing fee. I not only sent too much on my original check #2655 but apparently I sent it a month earlier than I meant to. You stated it was dated March 28, 1998 but I recalled the date as April 28, 1998 as we certainly wanted to avoid the late penalty.

My letter to the Division of Corporations questioning why I had not received my canceled check #2655 was sent on August 5, 1998 and was never answered. That check has to be somewhere. Was it sent back to Olde Lighthouse Realty, Inc. in your letter of April 3, 1998 which we never received? Apparently I need to stop payment on it but I hesitate to do until I know the new check has been accepted.

It would be most appreciated if this matter can be handled expeditiously. We have conducted no business since your notice and we do have prospects waiting. As soon as I hear from you, I will cancel Check # 2655, and we will go back to work. You have been most helpful to me in handling this mix-up and I want you to know I really appreciate your help. Hope the Holidays bring you all that you want and are very happy for you.

Sincerely,

Margaret R. Mang
