To Whom it may Concern,

6/6/98

Upon Speaking to Stacey on the phone on 6/3/98 I learned to my horror the Division of Corporations had failed to honor my Change of Address I had filed in my Application in 1995.

Due to my ignorance I did not notice I was not receiving my paper work from Tallahassee.

I feel that upon receiving returned mail. Some one in the office could of pulled our Application And Seen we changed our address. And sent it to our current new address. In previous years this Application of renewal has always been sent in a timely fashion. I am at fault due to the oversight, but I feel the Dept of Corporations is at fault for not following up on the Change of address. I ask that you accept this check to reinstate our Company.

Thank-you for taking the time to read this Letter..

Sincerely,
Wendy Abbott.
