SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

AMENDED AND RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
SUN COAST HOSPITAL, INC.

(An Osteopathic Institution)

Pursuant to section 617.1007 of the Florida Statutes and Article X of the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, SUN COAST HOSPITAL, INC. (an Osteopathic Institution), hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation," a not-for-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida, hereby amends and restates its Articles of Incorporation in their entirety as follows:

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the Corporation is: SUN COAST HOSPITAL, INC.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSES

Section 1. The general purposes for which this Corporation has been organized are exclusively charitable, scientific and educational within the scope of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, hereinafter referred to as the "Code."

Section 2. Without limiting the generality of the purposes specified in Section 1 above, the specific purposes of the Corporation shall be:

A. To operate a general acute care hospital consistent with an ongoing osteopathic philosophy of health care (the "Hospital");

B. To provide health care services with an osteopathic focus within the greater Tampa Bay region and particularly the communities in the Corporation's primary service area;

C. To conduct and maintain health care programs and activities designed to promote bringing life into being; minimizing the dangers to life, increasing the fullness of life, restoring life and saving jeopardized life.

ARTICLE III. POWERS

Section 1. Except as limited by these Articles of Incorporation or its Bylaws, the Corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers in furtherance of its purposes as are now or may hereafter be conferred on not-for-profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida. The Corporation (and its Board of Trustees) shall be subordinate to and subject to the authority of its Member in certain matters, which are set forth in these Articles of Incorporation and/or the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Section 2. Without limiting the generality of the powers specified in Section 1 above, the specific powers of the Corporation shall be:

A. To acquire, by purchase, lease or otherwise, and hold title to such real property, including improvements thereon, and any personal property as may be appropriate to carry out the purposes of the Corporation or any of its affiliated organizations;

B. To establish and operate, with an osteopathic focus, a hospital, intermediate care facility, skilled nursing facility, geriatric facility and/or any other health care facilities.

C. To establish, operate and maintain educational programs to instruct and train persons in the treatment and care of the sick and injured and in the promotion of wellness in the healthy;

D. To establish, operate and maintain research facilities and programs in order to promote and conduct chemical, pathological, scientific, medical and surgical research;

E. To borrow funds in order to expand, enhance, support or maintain the activities of the Corporation or any of its affiliated organizations;

F. To accept charitable donations in order to expand, enhance, support or maintain the activities of the Corporation or any of its affiliated organizations;

G. To make charitable contributions to any organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, including its Member and affiliated organizations;

H. To manage and operate any of its assets in recognition and attainment of the foregoing objectives; and

I. To utilize its income in furtherance of the foregoing objectives.

ARTICLE IV. LIMITATIONS ON ACTIVITIES

Section 1. The Corporation shall not pay any individuals nor may any part of the net earnings of the Corporation inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, any Member, Trustee or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual. The Corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation to any of such persons (subject to the Bylaws and any Conflicts of Interest policy of the Corporation) and may confer benefits upon any not for profit Member described in Section 501(c)(3) in conformity with its purposes and law. The Corporation may make distributions in dissolution, partial liquidation or otherwise as permitted by the laws of the State of Florida, to any not-for-profit corporate Member or affiliated organization which is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including the publication or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall endeavor to maintain the osteopathic character of the Hospital; provided however, a change in such character may be instituted only after the approval of such change by a unanimous vote of all of the members of the Board of Trustees of Sun Coast Health System, Inc., a Member of the Corporation ("HST").

Section 4. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Corporation shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation, within its sole discretion, to the Member, provided that at the time it is an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or to Sun Coast Hospital Foundation, Inc., provided at the time it is an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3), or if none of the foregoing organizations are so exempt, then to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes which, at the time of such disposition, qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Member of the Corporation shall determine. Any assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction exclusively for such purposes, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for such purposes, as said court shall determine.

ARTICLE V. TERM OF EXISTENCE

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The Corporation shall have as its sole member one (1) not-for-profit corporate entity, referred to herein as the "Member."

Section 2. Unless changed by an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, the sole Member shall be: SUN COAST HEALTH SYSTEM, INC., a Florida not-for-profit corporation, referred to herein as "HSL."
