(2) To make outright grants, loans or render other assistance of a financial nature to recognized churches or religious institutions as in the discretion of the officers and directors of this Corporation may be deemed desirable or beneficial;

(3) To make outright grants, loans or render other assistance to needy or destitute individuals in Hendry County and the State of Florida to supplement county and state welfare funds by grants, loans or assistance to individuals and/or organizations; and

(4) To contribute to such other educational, religious or welfare recipients or organizations as in the discretion of the officers and directors of this corporation may be deemed desirable that are classified by the U.S. Bureau of Internal Revenue as religious, charitable or educational institutions.

ARTICLE IV CHARITABLE RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

The purposes and operation of this Corporation shall be specifically restricted and limited as follows:

(1) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

(2) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; nor shall the Corporation engage in any activities that are unlawful under applicable federal, state, or local laws.

(3) The Corporation shall not (a) operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit and (b) engage in any prohibited transactions as described in §503 of the Code, and (c) accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status by virtue of §504 of the Code.

ARTICLE V CORPORATE POWERS

As a means of accomplishing the Objective set forth in Article III hereof, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

(4) To accept, acquire, receive, take, and hold by bequest, devise, grant, gift, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, judicial order or decree, or otherwise, for any of its objects and purposes, any property, both real and personal, of whatever kind, nature, or description and wherever situated.

(5) To sell, exchange, convey, mortgage, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the Corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.

(6) To borrow money, and, from time to time, to make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, debentures, promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other obligations of the Corporation for monies borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the other purposes of the Corporation, and to secure the payment of any such obligations by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust, or by other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights or privileges of the Corporation wherever situated, whether now owned or hereafter to be acquired.

(7) To invest and reinvest its funds in such stock, common or preferred, bonds, debentures, mortgages, or in such other securities and property as its Board of Trustees shall deem advisable, subject to the limitations and conditions contained in any bequest, devise, grant, or gift, provided such limitations and conditions are not in conflict with the provisions of §501(c)(3) of the Code, and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

(8) In general, and subject to such limitations and conditions as are or may be prescribed by law, to exercise such other powers which now are or hereafter may be conferred by law upon a Corporation organized for the purposes hereinabove set forth, or necessary or incidental to the powers so conferred, or conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the Corporation, subject to the further limitation and condition that, notwithstanding any other provision of this certificate, only such powers shall be exercised as are in furtherance of the tax-exempt purposes of the Corporation and as may be exercised by an organization exempt under §501(c)(3) of the Code, and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended and by any organization contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Code, and Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

ARTICLE VI
