SEMINOLE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, INC.
Seminole, Florida

PREAMBLE

We, the undersigned subscribers, each a mature person competent to contract, desiring to incorporate under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a not for profit corporation, under the laws of the State of Florida, and do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this corporation shall be the Seminole Christian Fellowship, Incorporated. It shall be located at 10202 - 131st Street North, Seminole, in Pinellas County, Florida, 33774 or at such other place in Pinellas County, Florida as the corporation may determine.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

A. The purpose of this corporation shall be to win people to faith in Jesus Christ and commit them actively to His church; to provide a place of worship for all; to preach the gospel of Christ at home and abroad; to conduct a church or churches, school or schools, and other institutions of a religious, educational and benevolent character for the spiritual growth, spiritual welfare of the community; and in furtherance thereof, to acquire and hold real and personal property necessary or convenient for the establishment of the place of religious worship for those of the Christian faith, and particularly for the present and future members of the congregation of the church organized in the county of Pinellas, now known as Seminole Christian Fellowship, Inc. of Florida and for other purposes connected therewith, or necessary, convenient or incidental to the carrying forward of the religious, benevolent and charitable work of said congregation.

B. For the purpose of executing deeds, mortgages, notes, leases, or other instruments affecting the transfer or encumbrance of real estate or any interest of the corporation therein, the Chairman of the Administrative Board of the congregation shall be, and at all times is, the President of the Corporation, and the Secretary of the Administrative Board shall be, and at all times is, the Secretary of the Corporation, and such persons are at all times authorized to act as such.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

The membership of this corporation shall consist of those followers of Jesus Christ who are now identified as members of the corporation; and those who shall unite with the corporation coming on the confession of their faith in Jesus Christ as Savior. Henceforth, those who are members of the corporation shall be referred to as "the congregation." When reference is made to "the corporation" it will refer to members of the corporation/congregation and to no others.

ARTICLE IV EXISTENCE

This corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI MANAGEMENT

A. The affairs of the corporation (also referred to as the congregation) shall be managed by a Board of Directors (also referred to as the Administrative Board) consisting of the Senior Minister, officers of the Administrative Board (see Article VII), the number of elders, deacons, and deaconess' as may be fixed in the Bylaws of the corporation from time to time, and such representatives of organizations within the church as may be named in the Bylaws of the corporation; said Administrative Board, however, at no time shall be composed of less than one elder, one deacon, and one deaconess, the preceding to be chairperson of their respective group.

B. Additional directors (other than elders, deacons and deaconess') may be added to the Administrative Board upon recommendation of said Board of the congregation, provided that said recommendation has been approved by a two-thirds majority vote of the quorum present and voting at any properly called meeting of the Board; and further provided that the congregation approve said recommendation by a two-thirds majority vote at any properly called meeting of the congregation.

C. The Board of Directors, excluding the senior minister (see Bylaws I.A.) shall be elected by the members of the corporation at the annual meeting of the corporation and shall hold office for two years, or for terms as set forth in the Bylaws of the corporation. Said officers shall have such duties as shall be prescribed by the Bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

The officers of the Administrative Board shall consist of a chairman, vice-chairman, treasurer, and a secretary.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS

The Bylaws of the corporation are to be made, altered or rescinded by a two-thirds majority vote of the members of the congregation present at any annual meeting, or special meeting called for that specific purpose, and provided that copies of the proposed amendment shall have been distributed to all members at least one week in advance of the meeting. Amendments of the Articles of Incorporation may be made in like manner. Announcements of the regular meeting shall be made in accordance with conditions prescribed by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX DISSOLUTION OR ABANDONMENT

Upon the dissolution of this corporation, for a period not to exceed one year, all assets remaining after discharging the obligations and responsibilities of the corporation shall be turned over to a religious, educational or charitable organization or organizations whose objectives are in harmony with those of the corporation. Such recipient organization or organizations must also be exempt from federal income taxation under the provisions of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The recipient organization shall be selected by, and the process of transfer completed by, the existing Administrative Board and with the majority vote of those members of the congregation who remain at the time such a dissolution or abandonment takes place. In no event may any of the assets of the church, upon dissolution thereof, be paid to or inure to the benefit of any individual member, director, or officer of the corporation, or any other private individual.
