Re: Document #722631

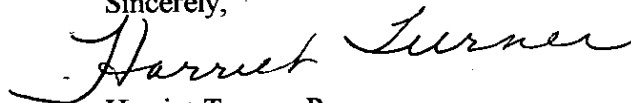

Dear Ms. Mitchell:

This letter is in reference to our telephone conversation of November 20th regarding the above document.

Thank you for your patience and assistance with the problems we have had in getting this document filed correctly. The document was originally filed in June with a check for $61.25 enclosed. It was returned for corrections on June 6 and returned by our manager immediately after she received it. We then received another letter written on October 16 explaining that the document was still filled out incorrectly. This was corrected and remailed on October 22nd. On November 4 you wrote to us explaining yet another error and the fact that a late fee was due. We are asking you to waive the late fee and will make sure that next year's filing will be timely and correct.

Your help in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Harriet Turner, Pres.
