ARTICLES OF RESTATEMENT
OF
CHAPTERS HEALTH SYSTEM, INC.
(A Corporation Not for Profit)

In accordance with Section 617.1007 of the Florida Statutes, Chapters Health System, Inc., a Florida not for profit corporation, restates its Second Restated Articles of Incorporation and certifies as follows:

1. Name. The name of the corporation restating its Second Restated Articles of Incorporation is Chapters Health System, Inc. (the "Corporation").
2. Text of Third Restated Articles of Incorporation. The text of the Third Restated Articles of Incorporation is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.
3. Certification. The Third Restated Articles of Incorporation contains amendments to the Corporation's Second Restated Articles of Incorporation. There are no members entitled to vote on the amendments. The amendments were adopted by the Corporation's Board of Directors on November 27, 2012, to be effective as of December 17, 2012.

The text of the amendments is as follows:

FIRST, Article I of the Second Restated Articles of Incorporation is amended to add the Corporation's new principal office address. Article I, as amended, will read as follows:

ARTICLE I

Name and Address

The name of the Corporation is Chapters Health System, Inc. (the "Corporation"). The principal office address of the Corporation is 12470 Telecom Drive, Suite 300 West, Temple Terrace, Florida 33637.

SECOND, Article III of the Second Restated Articles of Incorporation is amended to add a new Supported Organization. Article III, as amended, will read as follows:

ARTICLE III

Purposes

The Corporation is a not for profit corporation that is (i) organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code (the “Code”), (ii) established, organized and operated in accordance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; (iii) incorporated under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act; and, (iv) organized and operated exclusively for the benefit of, to perform the functions of, or to carry out the tax-exempt purposes and missions of LifePath Hospice, Inc., Good Shepherd Hospice, Inc., and Chapters Health Senior Independence, Inc., each an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) and classified as a public charity under Section 509(a)(2) of the Code (collectively, the “Supported Organizations”), for so long as the Supported Organizations qualify as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and classified as public charities under Section 509(a)(2) of the Code. In connection with its relationship with the Supported Organizations, no less than a majority of the directors of the Corporation must also be persons who are directors of the Supported Organizations. The Corporation is also authorized to perform any lawful act or activity for which corporations not-for-profit may be formed under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, including, without limitation:

1. To own, lease, establish, support, manage or furnish, directly or indirectly, any asset, facility, single-member limited liability company (the single-member of which shall be the Corporation) or service for the support and care of persons with or affected by advanced illness.

2. To promote the philosophy that the quality of life is important and that life should be lived to its fullest extent by those persons with or affected by advanced illness.

3. To promote understanding of the needs of persons with or affected by advanced illness.

4. To obtain public involvement and support by disseminating the aims, purposes and activities of the Supported Organizations, this Corporation and its single member limited liability companies to the general public.

5. To solicit, raise and receive funds and endowments for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of the Corporation.

6. To operate without regard to race, creed, age, sex, religion or national origin.

7. To do all other tasks, including the conducting of all activities, necessary, suitable, convenient, useful or expedient in connection with, or incidental to, the accomplishment of any of the purposes set forth herein to the full extent permitted by the laws of the sovereign State of Florida.

Restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not have or exercise any power which would cause it not to qualify as a tax-exempt organization under Sections 501(c)(3) or 509(a)(3) of the Code; nor shall the Corporation engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not pay dividends and no part of the net earnings, current or accumulated, or property of the Corporation, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, the Corporation's members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, or officers for services rendered, may confer benefits upon its members in conformity with the Corporation's purposes so long as such members are qualifying exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code at the time of conferring such benefits, and upon dissolution, final liquidation or partial liquidation, may make distributions to its qualifying members to the extent permitted by these Articles of Incorporation and applicable law.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not be controlled directly or indirectly by one or more disqualified persons (as defined in Section 4946 of the Code) other than foundation managers and other than one or more organizations described in Sections 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) of the Code.

THIRD, Article IV of the Second Restated Articles of Incorporation is amended to reflect a new Registered Office address for the Corporation. Article IV, as amended, will read as follows:

ARTICLE IV

Registered Agent and Office Address

The Registered Agent for this Corporation is Kathy L. Fernandez. The Registered Office address for this Corporation is 12470 Telecom Drive, Suite 300 West, Temple Terrace, Florida 33637.

FOURTH, Article VII of the Second Restated Articles of Incorporation is amended to reflect the correct name of the current Articles of Incorporation. Article VII, as amended, will read as follows:

ARTICLE VII

Amendments

The Corporation reserves the right to amend these Third Restated Articles of Incorporation at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by at least a majority vote of the directors then in office.

The foregoing amendments and the Third Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation attached hereto as Exhibit 1 were adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation on November 27, 2012, to be effective on December 17, 2012. The number of votes cast for the amendments and for the Third Restated Articles of Incorporation was sufficient for approval.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned Chair of the Board of Directors of Chapters Health System, Inc., has executed these Articles of Restatement this 27th day of November, 2012, to be effective as of December 17, 2012.

In connection with its relationship with the Supported Organizations, no less than a majority of the directors of the Corporation must also be persons who are directors of the Supported Organizations. The Corporation is also authorized to perform any lawful act or activity for which corporations not-for-profit may be formed under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, including, without limitation:

1. To own, lease, establish, support, manage or furnish, directly or indirectly, any asset, facility, single-member limited liability company (the single-member of which shall be the Corporation) or service for the support and care of persons with or affected by advanced illness.
2. To promote the philosophy that the quality of life is important and that life should be lived to its fullest extent by those persons with or affected by advanced illness.
3. To promote understanding of the needs of persons with or affected by advanced illness.
4. To obtain public involvement and support by disseminating the aims, purposes and activities of the Supported Organizations, this Corporation and its single member limited liability companies to the general public.
5. To solicit, raise and receive funds and endowments for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of the Corporation.

6. To operate without regard to race, creed, age, sex, religion or national origin.

7. To do all other tasks, including the conducting of all activities, necessary, suitable, convenient, useful or expedient in connection with, or incidental to, the accomplishment of any of the purposes set forth herein to the full extent permitted by the laws of the sovereign State of Florida.

Restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not have or exercise any power which would cause it not to qualify as a tax-exempt organization under Sections 501(c)(3) or 509(a)(3) of the Code; nor shall the Corporation engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not pay dividends and no part of the net earnings, current or accumulated, or property of the Corporation, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to, the Corporation's members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, or officers for services rendered, may confer benefits upon its members in conformity with the Corporation's purposes so long as such members are qualifying exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code at the time of conferring such benefits, and upon dissolution, final liquidation or partial liquidation, may make distributions to its qualifying members to the extent permitted by these Articles of Incorporation and applicable law.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles to the contrary, the Corporation shall not be controlled directly or indirectly by one or more disqualified persons (as defined in Section 4946 of the Code) other than foundation managers and other than one or more organizations described in Sections 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) of the Code.
