The corporation shall be conducted as a non-profit organization for the benefit of its members.

ARTICLE III

POWERS

The corporation shall have the following powers:

A. All of the powers and privileges granted to corporations not for profit under the law pursuant to which this corporation is chartered, and all of the powers and privileges which may be granted unto said corporation or exercised by it under any other applicable laws of the State of Florida, including the Condominium Act, Chapter 718, of the Florida Statutes.

B. All of the powers reasonably necessary to implement and effectuate the purposes of the corporation, including, but not limited to:

1. Making and establishing reasonable rules and regulations governing the use of apartment units and the common elements in the condominium as said terms may be defined in the Declaration of Condominium.

2. Levying and collecting assessments against members of the corporation to defray the common expenses of the condominium as may be provided in the Declaration of Condominium and in the Bylaws of this corporation which may be hereafter adopted, including the right to levy and collect assessments for the purposes of acquiring, operating, leasing, managing and otherwise trading and dealing with such property, whether real or personal, including the apartment units in the condominium, which may be necessary or convenient in the operation and management of the condominium and in accomplishing the purposes set forth in the Declaration of Condominium.

MEMBERS

The qualification of the members, the manner of their admission to membership and termination of such membership, and voting by members shall be as follows:

A. The owners of all apartment units in the condominium shall be members of the corporation, and no other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership, except as provided in Item E of this Article IV.

C. The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the corporation cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to his apartment unit. The funds and assets of the corporation shall belong solely to the corporation, subject to the limitation that the same be expended, held or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration of Condominium, and in the said Bylaws.

D. Should any member own more than one (1) apartment unit, such member shall be entitled to exercise or cast as many votes as he owns apartment units, in the manner provided in said Bylaws.
