Re: Dawg Investment Fund, Ltd.

Dear Diane:

Enclosed please find a completed Reinstatement Application for Dawg Investment Fund, Ltd. along with two cashiers checks which total $2,052.50 in payment of the maximum contribution fees for 2001 and 2002 and penalty fees for each year, along with a copy of my letter which was originally sent to you on July 24, 2002.

Also enclosed is your August 2nd letter returning our reinstatement package stating that a Supplemental Affidavit was required. My secretary called you today regarding your request for a Supplement Affidavit. She pointed out that the Affidavit of Capital Contributions originally filed with your office on June 14, 2000 showed the same capital contribution as is shown on our Reinstatement Application. You discovered that the capital contribution had not been updated on the computer, agreed that a Supplement Affidavit was not necessary, and said that we should return the package to you for reinstatement.

If you should have any additional questions or problems, please call me at 904-354-8888 ext-3012 or my secretary Sandy Caulder at ext. 3011. We appreciate your assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Gresham R. Stoneburner
