We have received your document for DECISIONPEO VII, INC. and your check(s) totaling $87.50. However, the document has not been filed and is being retained in this office for the following:

Thank you for correcting your application. Unfortunately the certification you submitted is not the same as the certificate we need. The certificate we require is like the first one you submitted, except that it will show the current name of the corporation. What you submitted is the certification page of a certified copy of an amendment. We require the single page certificate, like the one showing the former name, but showing only the current name of the corporation.
