Re: Explanation of First Date of Conducting Affairs in Florida

Dear Sir or Madam:

In our enclosed application we have stated August 15, 2003 as the date we first conducted affairs in Florida. This and follow-up meetings before the submission of this application were informal, in order to determine the interest to our purpose, of Liberians and other interested residents of Florida. Part of this determination included a representative(s) from this interest group to our Annual Conference, which was held from October 9 through 12, 2003 in Chevy Chase, Maryland. The Florida interest group sent two representatives, giving them the opportunity to meet members of existing chapters, observe some of the major aspects of the Organization's service and ministry and recommend to their group the establishment of a chapter.

We are satisfied that said interest group is ready to conduct formal business in Florida and we are now ready to proceed in organizing our first chapter in your state. It will be called South Florida Chapter. Your acceptance and approval will enable us to become formally organized to do official business.

Kind regards.

Sincerely,

Nancy T. Burphy
