passu with holders of Common Stock as if the Series B Preferred Stock had been converted to Common Stock.

5. Liquidation Preferences.

(a) Upon any Liquidation Event (as defined below), each holder of the Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to be paid, before any distribution or payment is made upon any Common Stock or any other class of capital stock, other than Preferred Stock that ranks senior or pari passu to the Series B Preferred Stock on liquidation, an amount in cash equal to 100% of the Purchase Price per each share of the Series B Preferred Stock held by such holder, plus accrued but unpaid dividends, whether or not declared, since the date of the initial issuance of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock up to and including the date full payment shall be tendered to the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to such liquidation, dissolution or winding up (collectively, the "Liquidation Amount").

(b) After payment of the Liquidation Amount shall have been made in full to the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock or funds necessary for such payment shall have been set aside by the Corporation in trust for the account of holders of the Series B Preferred Stock so as to be available for such payments, the remaining assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to its shareholders shall be allocated among the holders of the Common Stock, the Series B Preferred Stock and the holders of any additional series of capital stock then entitled to participate in such distribution, collectively as one class. Such distribution shall be made ratably as if each share of the Series B Preferred Stock had been converted into the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of a share of Series B Preferred Stock immediately prior to any such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation.

(c) If upon any Liquidation Event the remaining assets available for distribution to its shareholders shall be insufficient to pay the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock, and the holders of any class or series of stock ranking on liquidation pari passu with the Series B Preferred Stock, the full amount to which they shall be entitled, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and the holders of any class or series of stock ranking on liquidation pari passu with the Series B Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any distribution of the remaining assets available for distribution in proportion to the respective amounts which would otherwise be payable in respect of the shares held by them upon such distribution if all amounts payable on or with respect to such shares were paid in full.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed to by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, each of the following will be deemed a "Liquidation Event":

(i) any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation;

(ii) (A) the Corporation's direct or indirect sale, license, lease, transfer or other disposition, in any transaction or series of related transactions, of all or substantially all of its assets or (B) any transaction or series of related transactions (including, but not limited to, any consolidation, merger, reverse merger, reorganization, recapitalization, share exchange or sale or issuance of capital stock or other securities) which will result in the holders of the outstanding

Preferred Stock and the Board of Directors will rely on such appraisal in determining fair market value; and

(iii) insofar as it consists of both cash and property, be the proportion of such consideration so received, computed as provided in clauses (i) and (ii) above, as provided for pursuant to the transaction in which such cash or property is received or otherwise as determined in good faith by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(g) Written notice of such Liquidation Event, stating a payment date, the amount of the liquidation payments and the place where said liquidation payments shall be payable, shall be delivered not less than 15 days prior to any payment date stated therein and also the record date specified therein, to the holders of record of the Series B Preferred Stock.

(h) In case the Corporation shall at any time subdivide (by any stock split, stock dividend or otherwise) its outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock into a greater number of shares, the Liquidation Amount for each share of the Series B Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such subdivision shall be proportionately reduced, and, conversely, in case the outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be combined into a smaller number of shares, the Liquidation Amount for each share of the Series B Preferred Stock in effect immediately prior to such combination shall be proportionately increased.

6. Voting Rights.

(a) Except as expressly set forth herein or as required by law, the Series B Preferred Stock holders shall be entitled to notice of any shareholders' meeting or written consent of the shareholders and shall have that number of votes on all matters coming before the shareholders equal to the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock into which such Series B Preferred Stock is then convertible, and provided further that where the Georgia Business Corporation Code (as in effect from time to time, the "Code") requires a class vote of preferred stock, the Series B Preferred Stock will vote with all other outstanding shares of Preferred Stock as a single class, and where the rights, privileges and preferences of the Series B Preferred Stock would be adversely affected as a series (as distinguished from being affected on a pro-rata basis with holders of all other Preferred Stock), a vote or written consent of the holders of two-thirds of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be required.

(b) At any time there is a default in whole or in part in payment of dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock, the holders of 5% or more of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock have a right to call a special meeting of shareholders for the purpose of electing the members of the board of directors, such right to be exercisable by delivering a request in writing for the calling of the special meeting to anyone of the following officers of the Corporation: the president or secretary, or to the chairman of the board or a vice-president if there be such. The officer receiving the request shall forthwith cause notice to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting to be held at a time requested by the person or persons calling the meeting, such meeting to be held not less than 10 nor more than 60 days after the date of the meeting notice. If the notice is not given within 20 days after receipt of the request, the shareholders calling the meeting shall have the right to petition any court of competent jurisdiction for an order mandating the applicable officers to give notice of such meeting. Upon

(ii) amend its Articles of Incorporation or bylaws, or waive any provision thereof, if such amendment or waiver would amend or waive any of the rights, preferences, privileges of or limitations provided for herein for the benefit of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, including but not limited to changing the relative seniority rights of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock as to the payment of dividends in relation to the holders of any other capital stock of the Corporation, reduce the Liquidation Amount (as defined herein) or change the relative seniority of the payment of proceeds from a Liquidation Event, or cancel or modify the conversion rights set forth herein; or

(iii) increase the share capital of the Corporation or authorize or issue any securities or rights to subscribe for or convert into or call for the issue of any additional securities not outstanding on the date hereof other than Common Stock and capital stock that by its terms ranks pari passu or junior to the Series B Preferred Stock.

(e) In addition to any other rights provided by law, until the date which is three (3) years after the last date on which cumulative dividends were paid in shares of Series B Preferred Stock in accordance with Section 3, if any, the Corporation shall not, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders and former holders, as a class, of not less than a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock on which cumulative dividends were paid in shares of Series B Preferred Stock during the preceding three (3) year period, declare or pay any dividends or other distributions upon any of its securities, or redeem or purchase or otherwise acquire any of the Corporation's securities; provided, however, such affirmative vote or written consent shall not be required to the extent that the Corporation acquires any of the Corporation's securities pursuant to and in compliance with Section 2 of the Shareholders' Agreement.

7. Conversion. The holders of the Series B Preferred Stock shall have conversion rights as follows (the "Conversion Rights"):

(a) Right to Convert. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder thereof, at any time after the date of issuance of such Series B Preferred Stock at the office of the Corporation. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall be convertible into the number of shares of Common Stock which results from dividing (x) the aggregate Purchase Price for such shares of Series B Preferred Stock surrendered for conversion plus accrued but unpaid dividends on such share of Series B Preferred Stock, whether or not declared by (y) the Conversion Price (as defined below) then in effect at the time of conversion. The number of shares of Common Stock into which a single share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible is hereinafter referred to as the "Conversion Rate." The Conversion Price per share for the Series B Preferred Stock initially in effect shall be the Purchase Price for such share. The initial Conversion Price of the Series B Preferred Stock shall be subject to adjustment as herein provided.

(b) Mechanics of Conversion. Before any holder of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to convert the same into Common Stock as provided in Section 6(a), such holder shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed, at the office of the Corporation and shall give written notice to the Corporation at such office that the holder elects to convert the same. The Corporation shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, issue and deliver at such office to such holder of Series B Preferred Stock a certificate or certificates for the number of shares of

(e) Adjustment of Conversion Price Upon Issuance of Common Stock for Less than Consideration.

(i) Except as provided in Section 6(e)(ii), if and whenever the Corporation shall issue or sell, or is, in accordance with subsections (i) through (vi), deemed to have issued or sold, any Common Stock for a consideration per share less than the Conversion Price in effect for the Series B Preferred Stock immediately prior to the time of such issue or sale, then, forthwith upon such issuance or sale, the Conversion Price shall be reduced to the price equal to the per share price of the newly issued, or deemed issued, Common Stock. For purposes of this Section 6(e)(i), the following clauses (A) to (D) shall also be applicable:

(A) Issuance of Rights or Options. In case at any time the Corporation shall in any manner grant (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any warrants or other rights to subscribe for or to purchase, or any options for the purchase of, Common Stock or any stock or security convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock (such warrants, rights or options being called "Options" and such convertible or exchangeable stock or securities being called "Convertible Securities") whether or not such Options or the right to convert or exchange any such Convertible Securities are immediately exercisable, and the price per share for which Common Stock is issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities (determined by dividing (A) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Corporation as consideration for the granting of such Options, plus the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration payable to the Corporation upon the exercise of all such Options, plus, in the case of Options which relate to Convertible Securities, the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable upon the issue or sale of such Convertible Securities and upon the conversion or exchange thereof, by (B) the total maximum number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options) shall be less than the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting of such Options, then the total maximum number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued for such price per share as of the date of granting of such Options or the issuance of such Convertible Securities and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding. Except as otherwise provided in clause (iii), no adjustment of the Conversion Price shall be made upon the actual issuance of such Common Stock or of such Convertible Securities upon exercise of such Options or upon the actual issuance of such Common Stock upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities.

(B) Issuance of Convertible Securities. In case the Corporation shall in any manner issue (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) or sell any Convertible Securities, whether or not the rights to exchange or convert any such Convertible Securities are immediately exercisable, and the price per share for which Common Stock is issuable upon such conversion or exchange (determined by dividing (A) the total amount received or receivable by the Corporation as consideration for the issue or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Corporation upon the conversion or exchange thereof, by (B) the total maximum number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities) shall be less than the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to the allowed by the Corporation in connection therewith. In case any Options shall be issued in connection with the issuance and sale of other securities of the Corporation, together comprising one integral transaction in which no specific consideration is allocated to such Options by the parties thereto, such Options shall be deemed to have been issued for such consideration as determined in good faith by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(F) Record Date. In case the Corporation shall take a record of the holders of its Common Stock for the purpose of entitling them (A) to receive a dividend or other distribution payable in Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities or (B) to subscribe for or purchase Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities, then such record date shall be deemed to be the date of the issue or sale of the shares of Common Stock deemed to have been issued or sold upon the declaration of such dividend or the making of such other distribution or the date of the granting of such right of subscription or purchase, as the case may be.

(ii) Certain Issues of Common Stock Excepted. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation shall not be required to make any adjustment of any Conversion Price in the case of (i) any issuance or sale of Common Stock (or securities convertible into Common Stock) at a price less than the Conversion Price if such issuance is approved by holders of 85% of the Series B Preferred Stock; (ii) any issuance of Common Stock on conversion of any Series B Preferred Stock; (iii) any issuance of Common Stock pursuant to the Corporation's incentive plans, provided the aggregate number of shares issued under such plans shall not exceed 12.5% of the Common Stock on a fully diluted basis; or (iv) issuance of shares of Common Stock to VVS Capital, LLC ("VVS") pursuant to that certain Consulting Services Agreement by and between VVS and the Corporation equal to 2.5% of the Common Stock on a fully diluted basis.

(f) Minimal Adjustments. No adjustment in a Conversion Price need be made if such adjustment would result in a change in a Conversion Price of less than $0.01. Any adjustment of less than $0.01 which is not made shall be carried forward and shall be made at the time of and together with any subsequent adjustment which, on a cumulative basis, amounts to an adjustment of $0.01 or more in a Conversion Price.

(g) Certificate as to Adjustments. Upon the occurrence of each adjustment or readjustment of a Conversion Price pursuant to this Section 6, the Corporation at its expense shall promptly compute such adjustment or readjustment in accordance with the terms hereof and prepare and furnish to each holder of Series B Preferred Stock a certificate setting forth such adjustment or readjustment and showing in detail the facts upon which such adjustment or readjustment is based. The Corporation shall, upon written request at any time of any holder of Series B Preferred Stock, furnish or cause to be furnished to such holder a like certificate setting forth (i) such adjustments and readjustments, (ii) the Conversion Price and Conversion Rate at the time in effect for all Preferred Stock held, and (iii) the number of shares of Common Stock and the amount, if any, of other property which at the time would be received upon the conversion of such Preferred Stock.

(h) Notices of Record Date. In the event of any taking by the Corporation of a record of the holders of any class of securities for the purpose of determining the holders thereof who are entitled to receive any distribution (other than a cash distribution), the Corporation shall mail

3. Dividends. The holders of record of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive as, when, and if declared by the Board of Directors of the Corporation dividends, in preference to the holders of common stock of the Corporation ("Common Stock") and any other capital stock of the Corporation other than preferred stock ("Preferred Stock") that ranks senior to the Series A Preferred Stock with respect to dividends, at an annual rate of twelve percent (12%) of the Purchase Price per share; provided that the Board of Directors shall not declare any dividends (on the Series A Preferred Stock or otherwise) prior to a Liquidation Event without the consent of any necessary lenders to the Corporation. (e) The Corporation shall not have the power to effect any transaction constituting a Liquidation Event pursuant to Section 4(d)(ii)(2) above unless the agreement in respect of the transaction provides that the consideration payable to the shareholders of the Corporation shall be allocated among the holders of capital stock of the Corporation in accordance with Sections 4(a) and 4(b) above.

(ii) insofar as it consists of property other than cash, be computed at the fair market value thereof at the time of such issue, as determined in good faith by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation; provided, however, that if the holders of a majority of the Series A Preferred Stock then-outstanding dispute such determination within 10 business days after receipt of notice of such determination from the Corporation then (x) such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors in reliance on a recommendation of a representative selected by the holders of a majority of the Series A Preferred Stock then-outstanding and a representative selected by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, and (y) if no recommendation is made pursuant to clause (x) above within 3 business days, the Board of Directors shall cause an appraisal to be made by any nationally-recognized investment banking firm (other than that which provides, or has in the 2 years prior to such negotiation provided, services to the Corporation) selected by the Board of Directors and the holders of Series A Preferred Stock and the Board of Directors will rely on such appraisal in determining fair market value; and

Stock and the Series A Preferred Stock, voting together, shall constitute the directors of the Corporation until the next annual meeting, unless such term of office is terminated earlier in accordance with this Section 5(b).

(c) In addition to any other rights provided by law, so long as any Series A Preferred Stock is outstanding, the Corporation shall not and shall not permit any of its subsidiaries to, without first obtaining the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of not less than a majority of such outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock:

- (i) increase or decrease the total number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock;
- (ii) undertake any Liquidation Event;
- (iii) increase the number of members of the Corporation's Board of Directors;

- (i) alter or change the rights, preference or privileges of the Series A Preferred Stock;
- (ii) amend its Articles of Incorporation or bylaws, or waive any provision thereof, if such amendment or waiver would amend or waive any of the rights, preferences, privileges of or limitations provided for herein for the benefit of any shares of Series A Preferred Stock, including but not limited to changing the relative seniority rights of the holders of Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such Common Stock on such date.

(c) Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of Series A Preferred Stock. In lieu of any fractional shares to which the holder would otherwise be entitled, the Corporation shall pay cash equal to such fraction multiplied by the Conversion Price.

(d) Adjustment of Conversion Price Generally. The Conversion Price of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as follows:

(i) If the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at any time after the date hereof is increased by a share distribution payable in Common Stock or by a subdivision or split-up of Common Stock, then, on the date such payment is made or such change is effective, the Conversion Price shall be appropriately decreased so that the number of shares of Common Stock issuable on conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be increased in proportion to such increase of outstanding shares.

(ii) If the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at any time after the date hereof is decreased by a combination or reverse stock split of the outstanding Common Stock, then, on the effective date of such combination, the Conversion Price shall be appropriately increased so that the number of shares of Common Stock issuable on conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be decreased in proportion to such decrease in outstanding shares.

(iii) In case, at any time after the date hereof, of any capital reorganization, conversion or any reclassification of the shares of the Corporation (other than as a result of a share distribution or subdivision, split-up or combination of shares), or the consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into another person (other than a consolidation or merger in which the Corporation is the continuing entity and which does not result in any change in the Common Stock), or the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all the properties and assets of the Corporation as an entirety to any other person, the Series A Preferred Stock shall, if such event is not deemed a Liquidation Event for purposes of Section 4(d), after such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or other disposition, be convertible into the kind and number of shares or other securities or property of the Corporation or of the entity resulting from such consolidation or surviving such merger, or to which such properties and assets shall have been sold or otherwise disposed, to which such holder would have been entitled if immediately prior to such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale or other disposition he had converted his Series A Preferred Stock into Common Stock. The provisions of this Section 6.4(c) shall similarly apply to successive reorganizations, conversions, reclassifications, consolidations, mergers, sales or other dispositions.

time of such issue or sale, then the total maximum number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued for such price per share as of the date of the issue or sale of such Convertible Securities and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding, provided that (a) except as otherwise provided in clause (iii), no adjustment of the Conversion Price shall be made upon the actual issue of such Common Stock upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities and (b) if any such issuance or sale of such Convertible Securities is made upon exercise of any Options to purchase any such Convertible Securities for which adjustments of the Conversion Price have been or are to be made pursuant to other provisions of this Section 6(e), no further adjustment of the Conversion Price shall be made by reason of such issue or sale.

(C) Change in Option Price or Conversion Rate. Upon the happening of any of the following events, namely, if the purchase price provided for in any Option referred to in clause (i), the additional consideration, if any, payable upon the conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 6(e)(i)(A) or (B), or the rate at which Convertible Securities referred to in Section 6(e)(i)(A) or (B) are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock shall change at any time (including, but not limited to, changes under or by reason of provisions designed to protect against dilution), the Conversion Price in effect at such time of such event shall forthwith be adjusted to the Conversion Price which would have been in effect at such time had the Options or Convertible Securities still outstanding been issued with such changed purchase price, additional consideration or conversion rate, as the case may be, at the time initially granted, issued or sold, but only if as a result of such adjustment the Conversion Price then in effect hereunder is thereby reduced; and on the termination of any Option referred to in Section 6(e)(i)(A) or any right to convert or exchange Convertible Securities referred to in Section 6(e)(i)(B), in either case, without any such exercise or conversion, the Conversion Price then in effect hereunder shall forthwith be adjusted to the Conversion Price which would have been in effect at the time of such termination had such Option or Convertible Securities, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such termination, never been issued.

(D) Stock Dividends. In case the Corporation shall declare a dividend or make any other distribution upon any stock of the Corporation payable in Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities, any Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issuable in payment of such dividend or distribution shall be deemed to have been issued or sold at a price per share equal to $.00001, unless such dividend is paid to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock pro rata in proportion to their ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation on an as converted basis.

(E) Consideration for Stock. In case any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued or sold for cash, the consideration received therefor shall be deemed to be the amount received by the Corporation therefor, after deduction therefrom of any expenses incurred or any underwriting commissions or concessions paid or allowed by the Corporation in connection therewith. In case any shares of Common Stock, Options or Convertible Securities shall be issued or sold for a consideration other than cash, the consideration received therefor shall be deemed to be the fair value of such consideration as determined in good faith by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, after deduction of any expenses incurred or any underwriting commissions or concessions paid or

(i) Reservation of Shares Issuable Upon Conversion. The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock such number of shares of Common Stock as shall from time to time be sufficient to effect the conversion of all outstanding Series A Preferred Stock; and if at any time the number of authorized but unissued Common Stock shall not be sufficient to effect the conversion of all then outstanding Series A Preferred Stock, the Corporation will take such action as may, in the opinion of its counsel, be necessary to increase its authorized but unissued Common Stock to such number of shares as shall be sufficient for such purpose.

7. Replacement. Upon receipt of evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation of the ownership and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any certificate evidencing one or more shares of Series A Preferred Stock, and in the case of any such loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation, the Corporation will (at its expense) execute and deliver in lieu of such certificate a new certificate representing the number of shares represented by such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate.

8. Notices. Any notice required by the provisions hereof to be given to the holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall be deemed given five (5) days after being sent by certified or registered mail, postage and charges prepaid, return receipt requested, and addressed to each holder of record at such holder's address appearing on the books of the Corporation.
