Dear Ms. Hodges,

We spoke several days ago regarding the attached letter. I would like to try to explain my present situation and ask if there is any relief that might be granted regarding the penalties and fines imposed due to our oversight in registering with the State Department as a non-Florida corporation doing business in Florida.

I took over control of our company about 5 years ago with the death of the founder and CEO, Curtis Baggett. Up until that time, we had a branch in South Florida who was registered with your department in Florida. With the change in leadership, we have shifted all purchasing and invoicing to the Birmingham, Alabama home office. We have a sales and use tax number with Florida and we do pay Florida corporate income tax.

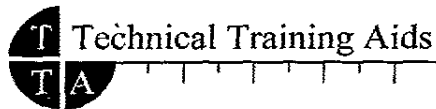

It has only recently come to my attention that we are required to register with your department to do business in Florida. When filling out the online forms, the clerk in my office listed the first date of doing business in Florida as 1981 which was our incorporation date.

If you could please review our situation and see if some relief could be granted for the penalties and fines levied, it would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Larry C. Baggett

Ms. Brenda Tadlock

Dear Ms. Tadlock,

Thank you for your telephone call this morning regarding our failure to register as a non-Florida corporation doing business in Florida. You asked for some written clarification on some points we discussed.

Technical Training Aids, Inc. is in the business of supplying technology to educational institutions. In the past we used an independent sales agent in the State of Florida to conduct business.

Five years ago we added two (2) employees in addition to an independent representative. Our employees are primarily engaged in technical support.

We were never asked by any of the schools or colleges for a business registration number. We were asked for a sales and use tax number and of course, we do have that.

We hope that in the future we will continue to add employees in Florida. We will be diligent in our efforts to comply with all the rules and regulations that govern doing business in the State of Florida.

Thank you for your help in resolving this matter.

Sincerely,
