Pursuant to the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, GS&P III, Inc. (formerly BJR, Inc.), which was incorporated on December 30, 1986, and has a control number of 182475, hereby amends and restates its charter in its entirety as follows:

1. Name. The name of the Corporation is: GS&P III, Inc.

2. Shares. The Corporation is authorized to issue One Hundred Thousand (100,000) shares of stock (common, having no par value). These shares together shall have unlimited voting rights and full and equal rights to share in the profits of the Corporation and its net assets upon dissolution.

3. Registered Office. The Corporation's registered office is 150 Third Avenue South, Suite 2800 Nashville, Tennessee 37201, which is located in Davidson County, and its registered agent at that office is Kristopher Kemp.

4. Principal Office/Original Incorporator. The principal office of the Corporation is: 222 Second Avenue South, Suite 1400, Nashville, Tennessee 37201-2308. The original Incorporator of the Corporation was Brackney J. Reed.

5. Profit. The Corporation is for profit.

6. Purpose. The purpose or purposes for which the Corporation is organized are to engage in any business not prohibited by law under the laws of Tennessee and to do any and all things necessary or incidental in the operation of such business or businesses.

7. Liability.

(a) To the fullest extent that the law of the State of Tennessee, as it exists on the date hereof or as it may hereafter be amended, permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors, no director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director.

(b) The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify any director, officer, employee, agent of the Corporation, or any other person who is serving at the request of the Corporation in any such capacity with another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprises to the fullest extent permitted by the law of the State of Tennessee, as it exists on the date hereof or as it may hereafter be amended, and any such indemnification may continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and may inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

(c) Duty to Indemnify. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitral, or investigative and whether formal or informal (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director or officer of another corporation or of a limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter an "Indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as in effect on the date hereof, or as may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including but not limited to counsel fees, judgments, fines, ERISA, excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators. The right to indemnification conferred in this section shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that any advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this section or otherwise; the indemnitee furnishes the Corporation with a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standards for indemnification under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act; and a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

(d) Right to Indemnify. The Corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an employee or agent who is not a director or officer to the same extent as to a director or officer by specific action of its Board of Directors or by contract.

(e) Advancement of Expenses. Except in cases where a majority of the entire Board of Directors resolves to the contrary, it shall be the policy of the Corporation to advance expenses to any director, officer, employee or agent who has a good faith claim to indemnification and who has complied with the requirements of the last sentence of subsection (c) of this Section 7 as to qualifying for advancement of expenses.

(f) No Limitation. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred by this section and its subparts, and all other indemnification rights specified in this charter, shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this charter, bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

1000000-12001 00/20/2019 3:10:11 PM Received by Tennessee Secretary of State

(g) Power to Purchase Insurance. The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

(h) Effect of Future Repeal or Amendment. Any repeal or modification of any provision of the indemnification and related provisions of this charter by the shareholders or by the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

(i) If the Tennessee Business Corporation Act is amended after approval of this section to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Tennessee Business Corporation Act, as so amended.

8. Preemptive Rights. The Corporation elects not to have preemptive rights.

9. Removal of Directors. Any or all of the directors of the Corporation may be removed for cause by a vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors and with or without cause by a proper vote of the shareholders. "Cause" shall include, but not be limited to, a director willfully or without reasonable cause being absent from any regular or special meeting for the purpose of obstructing or hindering the business of the Corporation.

10. Action by Shareholders. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the shareholders of the Corporation may be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation or by a written resolution in lieu of a meeting signed by the shareholders representing the minimum number of affirmative votes required for such action at a meeting in accordance with Section 48-17-104 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act.

11. Opt-In. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Corporation hereby opts into the protections provided to it and to its shareholders pursuant to the Tennessee Business Combination Statutes, as that term is defined in this charter.

(a) In connection with any transaction that is, or that could reasonably be considered to be, covered by any of the Tennessee Business Combination Statutes, or which involves any business combination, merger, consolidation, share exchange, tender offer, exchange offer, liquidation, distribution, sale of all or a material part of the Corporation's assets, or comparable transaction (any and all of which may be referred to in this charter as a "Change in Control Transaction", as that term is defined in this charter), the Board of Directors, when evaluating any offer or proposal of another party that would or could result in a Change in Control Transaction, shall, in determining what is in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders, give due consideration to all factors deemed relevant by it under the circumstances then and there prevailing, including without limitation: (a) the short-term and long-term community, financial, social and economic effects on the employees, customers, shareholders and other stakeholders and constituencies of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, and on the communities within which the Corporation and its present or future subsidiaries operate; (b) the consideration being offered by the other party in relation to the then-current value of the Corporation in a freely negotiated transaction and in relation to the Board of Directors' then-estimate of the future value of the Corporation as an independent entity; and (c) the impact of any such Change in Control Transaction on the long-term and strategic plans of the Corporation. The Board of Directors shall not be required to quantify or assign weight or value to any particular component of its decision-making process.

(b) Express Limitation of Liability. In connection with any proposed, potential, or actual Change in Control Transaction, neither the Corporation nor any of its officers or directors may be held liable for:

(i) Failing to approve the acquisition of shares of the Corporation's capital stock by an Interested Shareholder on or before the date the shareholder acquired such shares;

(ii) Seeking to enforce or implement the provisions of Tennessee law, the Corporation's charter, the Corporation's bylaws, and/or any of the Corporation's contractual agreements, including any applicable shareholder rights agreement(s);

(iii) Failing to adopt or recommend any charter or bylaw amendment or provision relating to provisions of Tennessee law including, without limitation, applicable provisions of one or more of the Tennessee Business Combination Statutes; or failing to redeem, recommend the redemption, or support the redemption of any shareholders rights agreement(s) applicable to the Corporation or its capital stock; and/or

(iv) Opposing any Change in Control Transaction because of a good faith belief that such transaction would adversely affect the Corporation's employees, customers, suppliers, stakeholders and/or other constituencies of the Corporation and/or any one or more of its present or future subsidiaries and/or any one or more of the communities in which the Corporation or any of its present or future subsidiaries operate, or any other factor deemed relevant by the Board of Directors under the circumstances.
