RE: W07000059189

Dear Leslie:

I spoke with you earlier today and want to thank you for your clarification and for sending this on to the proper office. This letter and the enclosed information is to correct the filing status and naming issues that were realized after submitting the original form. I have spoken with our attorney and he has advised me that all we need to do is file as a foreign profit corporation to transact business.

I have completed the correct forms and chosen an alternate corporate name that is currently available on your website, since our company name is already being used by someone else in the state of Florida.

We have already submitted a check for $122.50 with the initial filing. Could you please use those funds to cover the cost of this filing and send me a refund check for the remaining $35.00?

Sincerely,
