RE: Ride-Away; ref: W9000004038

Dear Sir or Madam,

As noted in your letter, there was an assessment of fees for our corporation dating back to the date of first business noted as August 1, 2006.

The update to this information is as follows:

Ride-Away Handicap Equipment Corp. attempted to initiate the registration of our business name in Florida in 2006. The name at that time was already in use; which forced us to make a change in registration to Ride-Away Handicap Motors, Inc., still owned by the foreign corporation Ride-Away Handicap Equipment Corp. That entity has done business and has been paying all taxes and assessments to the State of Florida since that time.

I am enclosing for your records, our most recent filing detail of Sales Taxes for Florida.

We are in the process of registering our official name with the State of Florida as the prior registrant (never associated with Ride-Away) has allowed the filing to lapse, thus allowing us an opportunity to register as noted in our filing. There should be no assessment of past practices as we have been in compliance with the statutes accordingly.

Please update your records and complete the registration for our company.

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me at 603-770-1151; or at spensernh@comcast.net.

Thank you,

Clarke R. Chandler
