I finally received the application that you submitted to our office. Once I got all the documents together I discovered I did not have the proper certification from the State of Ohio. I will need for you to get me a current certified copy of the name change that was filed. I see where I can download the actual filing from Ohio's website but it doesn't have a current certificate with it. Our law states the certification must be within 90 days of receipt in our office.
