Line 8: Purpose

The Drugs for Neglected Diseases initiative (DNDi) is a patient-needs driven, not-for-profit research and development (R&D) organization discovering and developing safe, effective, and affordable medicines for neglected diseases that afflict millions of the world's poorest people. DNDi focuses on developing new treatments for the most neglected patients suffering from little-known, often fatal diseases including human African trypanosomiasis (sleeping sickness), leishmaniasis, Chagas disease, filaria, mycetoma, pediatric HIV, and hepatitis C. DNDi's primary objective is to deliver 16 to 18 new treatments by 2023.

Headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, DNDi has four main regional offices in Brazil, India, Kenya, and the United States, and several other offices, including in Japan, Democratic Republic of Congo, and Malaysia. In 2008, DNDi opened an affiliate office in New York City to serve as the headquarters for DNDi North America. A registered 501(c)(3) non-profit, DNDi North America works to strengthen and expand scientific, policy advocacy, partner development, communications, and in particular, fundraising efforts in the region to enhance DNDi's global impact.
