Dear People:

Around April 20, 2000, I sent to your office, in separate envelopes, the forms mentioned above, for the two corporations listed, along with 2 checks for $158.75 each.

The problem is that I never received the appropriate Certificate of Status, and furthermore, the checks never cleared the Bank.

Attached please find another forms, and checks, for both corporations. I hope you will be kind enough to accept them as timely filed in order to avoid any penalty.

You may review the record of payment for the two corporations and you will see that they always pay on time.

Sincerely, with my best regards, I remain,

Truly yours,

---
