Re: V.I.P. International Travel, Inc
Reinstatement of Corporation

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am very surprised to receive your Notice of Administrative Disolution of our corporation, V.I.P. International Travel, Inc.

I did not receive the form for filing the annual report (uniform Business report) – as we normally do each year. As you can see from your records we have always filed the annual report in a timely basis since we opened our business in 1982.

We hereby request that you reinstate the corporation and accept the enclosed check in the amount of the standard fee.

Ours is a small family business and we are hurting..

My husband and business partner, Victor Puig, suffered a massive stroke on July 4th, 2002 in Charleston, South Carolina and he was hospitalized for three months. He is presently undergoing therapy.

Although I am certain that I did not receive the annual report form that you normally send us, it is possible that with all the difficulties we have encountered, said form could have been misplaced in our office.

In any event, I hereby submit the Application for Reinstatement and request that you please waive the penalties and accept the standard renewal fee.

Please, feel free to call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Irene Puig,
President
