THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF NIGERIA
COMPANIES AND ALLIED MATTERS DECREE, 1990

COMPANY LIMITED B SHARES

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

-OF-

BARMANI AIRLINE LIMITED

INTERPRETATION

In these regulations "the Decree" means the Companies Decree 1990.
Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these regulations bear the same meaning as in the Decree.

PRIVATE COMPANY

The Company is a private company and accordingly:-

- (a) the right to transfer shares is restricted in manner hereinafter prescribed.
- (b) the number of members of the company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the company and of persons who having been formerly in the employment of the company were while in such employment and have continued after the determination of such employment to be members of the company) is limited to fifty; provided that where two or more person hold one or more shares in the company jointly they shall for the purpose of this regulation be treated as a single member.
- (c) any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of the company is prohibited.
- (d) the company shall not have power to issue share warrants to bearer.

CLASSES OF SHARES

The Company may from time to time issue classes of shares. It shall be the responsibility of the Directors to determine the classes of shares to be issued. All the right or restrictions attached to each particular class of shares shall be specified in the terms of issue but such rights may at any time be varied in accordance with the provisions of Section 141 of the Decree.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION

Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained shares in the company shall be transferable by written instrument in the common form signed by both the transferee and the transferor and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

The personal representatives of a deceased sole holder of shares shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any

- title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the name of two or more holders, the survivor or survivors, or the personal representative of the deceased survivor, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share.

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Directors have the right either to register as a member in respect of the share or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any rights conferred by membership in relation of meetings of the company.

RESTRICTION ON TRANSFER OF SHARES

The directors may, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, refuse to register any transfer of any share, whether or not it is fully paid share.

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS OF THE COMPANY

The Company shall not allot any new or unissued shares unless the same are offered in the first instance to all the shareholders or to all the shareholders of the class or classes being issued in proportion as nearly as may be to their existing holdings.

The offer to existing shareholders shall be by notice specifying the number of shares to which the shareholder is entitled to subscribe and limiting a time, not being less than 28 days after the service of the notice, after the expiration of which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined. On the receipt of an intimation from the shareholder that the declines to accept the shares offered or after the expiration of the stipulated time as the case may be the board of directors may, subject to the terms of any resolution of the company, dispose of the shares at a price not less than that specified in the offer, in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company.

Regulations 10 and 11 above are not alterable except with the unanimous consent of all the members of the company.

COMMISSION AND BROKERAGE

The Company may exercise the power of paying commissions conferred by section 131 of the Decree, provided that the ~~rate~~ ^{amount} per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to ~~be~~ ^{paid} shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section. Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or in one way and partly in the other.

The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

5. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution effect an alteration of its share capital in any of the ways set out in section 100 of the Decree.
6. Subject to the provisions of the Decree on reduction of capital, the Company may, whenever it considers it expedient to do so, by special resolution reduce its share capital any capital redemption fund or any share premium account.

MEETINGS

7. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.

8. The Chairman, if any, of the board of directors shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

9. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as Chairman or if no director is present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

10. An Annual General Meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the company other than an Annual General Meeting, or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution, shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day on which it is given and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business shall be given, in a manner if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting to such persons as are, under regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company: Provided that a meeting of the company shall notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this regulation, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:-

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 75 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

11. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

2. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the Accounts, Balance Sheets, and the reports of the Directors and Auditors, the election of Directors in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors.

3. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business and for the purpose hereof, unless it is otherwise provided, two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.

4. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened upon the requisition of members shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members of whatever class present shall be a quorum.

5. The Chairman, if any, of the Board of Directors shall preside at every general meeting, but if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to act as Chairman, the members present shall choose some Director or if no Directors be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some member to be Chairman of the meeting.

6. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of show of hands) demanded by the Chairman or at least three members entitled to vote at the meeting or by the holders present in person or by proxy of at least one-tenth part of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting or by a member or members holding shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid upon all the shares conferring that right. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the company shall be conclusive evidence thereof without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. A proxy needs not be a member of the Company.

7. Any corporation which is a member of this company may, by resolution of its Directors or other governing body, authorise any person to act as its representative at any meeting or meetings of this company or of any class of members thereof and such representative shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as if he had been an individual shareholder, or including power, when personally present, to vote on a show of hands.

8. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings (or being corporations by their duly authorised representatives) shall be valid and effectual, as if the same had been passed at a General Meeting of the Company duly convened and held.

A proxy may take part in the proceedings of a General Meeting as if he were the member whom he represents.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

On a show of hands every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. On a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

DIRECTORS

The first Directors of the company shall be appointed by the subscribers to the Memorandum of Association.

Unless and until otherwise determined by the Company in General Meeting, the number of Directors shall not be less than two nor more than ten.

The Directors shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint a person as an additional Director.

The Company in General Meeting may from time to time direct such sums as may be thought fit to be paid as and by way of remuneration to the Directors and any such shall be divided amongst them as they may agree, or failing agreement equally. The Directors shall also be entitled to be repaid all expenses reasonably incurred by them respectively in or about the performance of their duties as Directors.

It shall not be necessary for any Director of the Company to acquire or hold any share qualification, but a Director shall be entitled to receive notice, and to attend all General Meetings.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

The office of a Director shall be vacated:-

- (1) upon removal in accordance with the provision of Article 35 hereof.
- (2) if by notice in writing to the Company he resigns the office of Director.
- (3) if he becomes bankrupt or insolvent or enters into any agreement with his creditors.
- (4) if he is prohibited from being a Director by an order made under any of the provisions of the Companies Act, 1990.
- (5) if he is found lunatic or becomes of unsound mind.
- (6) if he is requested in writing by ~~the~~ other Directors to resign his office.

A Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company except that of Auditor, upon such terms as to remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

3. A Director shall be capable of contracting or participating in the profits of any contract with the Company in the same manner as if he were not a Director, subject nevertheless to the following provisions:-

- (1) He shall declare the nature of his interest in any contract or proposed contract in which he is interested; and
- (2) After he has become interested therein he shall not vote as a Director in respect of the contract or proposed contract or any matter arising thereout, and if he does so vote, his vote shall not be counted. The prohibition against voting shall not, however, apply to any contract or agreement for giving securities to a Director for advances made or to be made by him to the Company for liabilities or obligations, whether by way of guarantee or otherwise, incurred or assumed or proposed to be incurred or assumed by him on behalf of or for the benefit of the Company, or by a Director (whether absolutely or conditionally) for any shares or debentures of the Company or of any company in which this Company is interested, and it may at any time be suspended, relaxed or removed to any extent and on any terms or conditions by the Company in General Meeting.
- (3) A Director shall be counted for the purpose of forming a quorum notwithstanding that he may be disqualified from voting under this Article.

4. The Company may, by Extraordinary Resolution remove any Director and may, by an Ordinary Resolution, appoint another person in his stead. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim such Director may have for damages for breach of any contract or service between him and the Company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

5. The Directors, from time to time, and at any time, may provide through Local Boards, Attorneys or agencies for the management of the affairs of the Company outside Nigeria, and may appoint any persons to be members of such Local Boards or as Attorneys or Agents and may remove any person so appointed and appoint others in their place, and may fix their remuneration.

6. The Directors, from time to time, and at any time may delegate to any such Local Board, Attorney or Agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in the Directors, other than the power to make calls, forfeit shares, borrow money or issue debentures and any such delegation may be made on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Directors may think fit, and may include a power to sub-delegate, and the Directors may at any time provided the Directors may annul or vary such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby.

7. Any Director may at any time appoint any other Director or appoint any other person approved by a majority of the other Directors for the time being to be his alternate and may at any time remove any Alternate Director appointed by him, and (subject to such approval as aforesaid) appoint another in his place. An Alternate Director shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company nor shall it be necessary for him to acquire or hold any qualification share, but he shall be entitled (subject to his giving to the Company an address within Nigeria at which notices may be served on him) to receive notice of meetings, of the Directors and to attend and vote as a Director at any such meetings at which the Director appointing him is not present and at such meetings to exercise all powers, duties and authorities of the Director appointing him. A Director who is also an Alternate Director shall be entitled in addition to his vote, to a separate vote on behalf of the Director he is representing. An Alternate Director, if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a Director, shall ipso facto cease to be an Alternate Director. Every person acting as an Alternate Director shall be an officer of the Company and shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults, and he shall not be deemed to be an agent of or for the Director appointing him. All appointments and removals of an Alternate Director made by any Director in pursuance of this Article shall be in writing under the hand of the Director making the same and shall be sent to or left at the registered office of the Company.

3. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Directors may be fixed by the Directors and unless so fixed shall be two.

4. Any question arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

5. The Directors may elect a Chairman of their meeting and determine the period for which he is to hold office; but if no such chairman is elected or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

6. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors, shall be as valid and effectual as if it has been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held.

BORROWING POWERS

7. The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock, and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

THE SEAL

8. The Seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a resolution of the Board of Directors and in the presence of at least one Director and the Secretary or such other person as the Director may appoint for the purposes; and the Director and Secretary or other person as aforesaid shall sign every instrument to which the seal of the Company is so affixed in their presence.

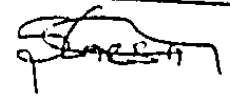

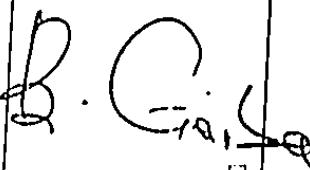

WINDING UP

In winding up the Liquidator may, with the sanction of an Extra-Ordinary Resolution, distribute all or any of the assets in specie among the members in such proportions and manner as may be determined by resolution, provided always that if any such distribution is determined to be made otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the members every member shall have the same right of dissent and other ancillary rights as if such resolution were a Special Resolution passed pursuant to Section 267 of the Companies Act.

INDEMNITY

Every Director, Managing Director, Agent Auditor, Secretary and other Officer for the time being of the Company shall be indemnified out of the shares or the Company against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under the Act in which relief is granted to him by the Court.
