Dear Mr. Collins :

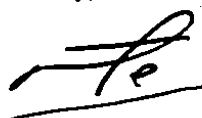

Thank you for your letter dated July 30, 1996 and received by us on August 9, 1996.

Lone Stable, Inc. intends to do business in Florida in a low scale and minimal manner. To comply with State laws, we have completed the application to transact business.

As mentioned to you on our previous letter, our only intention is to abide by all laws in any given state. We have raced in other states and such permit or certificate had never been requested or made aware to the applicants of a given license. The Florida State office at CALDER did not made us aware of this requirement at time of Licensing. We would have comply with this requirement earlier if we had been notify at that time. We also would like to suggest that the State office make applicants aware of such statutes with the sole purpose of complying with the Law and prevent future embarrassment.

Our enclosed check in the amount of $ 78.75 covers the registration fee and the certificate of status request. Once again thank you for your guidance on this matter. We do appreciate your clarification.

Sincerely,

F. R. Fuentes
President

RE: Lone Stable, Inc. #W96000012287

Dear Mr. Puertos:

It has been brought to my attention that the above mentioned entity may be transacting business in the State of Florida. I have searched the records of this office and have found no record of any filing for Lone Stable, Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of Puerto Rico.

Section 607.1501, Florida Statutes (copy enclosed), states that a foreign corporation may not transact business in this State without obtaining a certificate of authority from the Florida Department of State. Further, s. 607.1502(4), F.S., authorizes the Division of Corporations to collect all fees and taxes, and a penalty between $500.00 and $1000.00 for each year and any part thereof that a foreign corporation has transacted business in Florida without proper authority.

THE DIVISION OF CORPORATIONS RECOMMENDS THAT CORPORATE DOCUMENTS BE REVIEWED BY YOUR LEGAL COUNSEL. THE DIVISION IS A FILING AGENCY AND AS SUCH DOES NOT RENDER ANY LEGAL, ACCOUNTING, OR TAX ADVICE. THE PROFESSIONAL ADVICE OF YOUR LEGAL COUNSEL TO ASCERTAIN EXACT COMPLIANCE WITH ALL STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS IS STRONGLY RECOMMENDED.

Please review s. 607.1501(2), F.S., to determine whether Lone Stable's activities in Florida constitute the transaction of business. If Lone Stable, Inc. requires a certificate of authority, submit the enclosed "Application by Foreign Corporation for Authorization to Transact Business in Florida". If after reviewing s. 607.1501(2), F.S., it is determined that said corporation does not need to obtain authority, please provide a written response to that effect within thirty (30) days to avoid the necessity of further action.

After careful review of your letter, we understand, to the best of our knowledge and belief, that our company, organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico does not qualify for the need of authorization. We believe that our company's Tax jurisdiction is Puerto Rico which, as you may know, has its own Tax jurisdiction as defined by the IRS. The management further believe that all transaction out of the Puerto Rico are duly recorded on its books and accounted for under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico where taxes are rendered under worldwide income. However, we would appreciate your response in an effort to clarify the situation and in good faith as is our main interest to do business worldwide in accordance and in compliance of all laws and statutes.

RE: Lone Stable, Inc.
Ref. Number: W96000012287

Dear Mr. Fuentes:

Thank you for your letter dated July 13, 1996, concerning authority to transact business in Florida by Lone Stable, Inc..

As I previously mentioned, s. 607.1501(1), F.S., states "a foreign corporation may not transact business in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority from the Department of State". I realize that said corporation is organized under the laws of Puerto Rico and that it is liable for taxes there.

If Lone Stable, Inc. intends to engage in the transaction of business in Florida, as stated on its Pari-Mutual Wagering License Application filed with the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (copy enclosed), it should obtain a certificate of authority from the Department of State.

The question of a foreign corporation being required to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in Florida is a separate issue from which state or country it owes taxes to or has tax jurisdiction. A foreign corporation transacting business in Florida is responsible for complying with the appropriate laws governing it in this state.

If Lone Stable's activities constitute the transaction of business within the meaning of s.607.1501, F.S., it is required to apply for and obtain the proper certificate of authority from the Department of State. Foreign corporations that fail to obtain authority are liable for civil penalties and all other fees imposed by the "Florida Business Corporation Act".

Please contact me if I may be of further assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Hart Collins, Senior Corporate Administrator
Division of Corporations

We have received your document for LONE STABLE, INC. and your check(s) totaling $78.75. However, the document has not been filed and is being retained in this office for the following:

Pursuant to section 607.1502(4) or 617.1502(4), F.S., this office is required to collect a penalty of $1000 for each year this corporation transacted business in Florida prior to qualification and the appropriate annual report fees that would have been due had the corporation qualified the year it began operation in this state.

However, the $1000 per year penalty fee is waived, pursuant to laws of Florida 96-212, for any corporation that applies for a certificate of authority between July 1, 1996 and December 1, 1996.

The total amount due this office through December 31, 1996 to cover the back annual report(s) is $600.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (904) 487-6092.
