Dear Div. of Corp:

I got ready to pay my annual filing fee and complained to my accountant that the fee had gone so high. He informed me that I should have paid it in March. I was in shock. I am the president of this corporation and personally go through the mail each day. I have paid this fee faithfully for many years and I do not believe that it is possible that I could have misplaced such a large envelope. I am convinced that I never received the first notice. Please accept my check for $150.00 and waive the penalty. If this cannot be done, please advise me and I will pay the penalty.

Sincerely,

John M Stewart

President
