Gentlemen:

We were shocked when we received your notice of dissolution or revocation last week.

As we explained to your "Yula" over the phone we sent you our check on the middle of January, 2002 for the $150.00 together with the signed report and since the check was cashed by you we assumed everything is fine.

Yet, Ms. Yula explained that there was a letter sent to us on Feb. 14th explaining that we need to assign the (V.P.) title to the addition of an officer and since we never complied with it the revocation has happened.

Of course we never received that letter from you, otherwise adding a V.P. title would have been automatic. Consequently, please find enclosed our application for reinstatement of our corporation at the same time showing the title of the new officer addition. We also hereby request to please waive all penalties for this reinstatement and accept the original 150.00 as proper dues since we were never aware of any deficiency needed to correct.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Rene Morales
President
