Re: ~~TOT TUTORS, INC.~~
DOCUMENT # J47748

Gentlemen:

My client named above has recently received a notice of intent to dissolve its corporation. Total confusion set in as my client remembered signing the Annual Report form in January as prepared by my office and forwarded for filing. Upon closer examination, it was found that indeed the corporate officer did sign the Annual Report form prepared by my office and forwarded for filing. Unfortunately, due to temporary help at the corporation, "filing" was not understood to mean cut a check and send to the State in the envelope provided by the CPA. Filing meant file in the file cabinet and in fact when we found the original signed by the corporate officer, it was attached to the file copy as well.

Due to the above circumstances and the fact that the corporation had the proper intent, we are enclosing the $150 filing fee and respectfully request that you abate the $400 late charge. We were told by telephone with your office that this would be the procedure to follow.

We thank you for your cooperation in advance.

Sincerely,

JAY SERBIN
