Department of State
Division of Corporations
P.O. Box 6327
Tallahassee, Fl 32314

To those concerned,

Wholly fortuitously, in connection with the need to give proof of corporate existence, I discovered within the last couple of days that according to the records of the Corporations Division, my personal service corporation, Douglas L. Williams P.A., was "Administratively Dissolved" due to failure to provide or file annual reports since the year 2001.

I am absolutely at a loss to understand how such a thing could happen: as a practicing attorney of long-standing, I am more than passingly familiar with the need to maintain "good" (i.e. valid) corporate standing and status, and the notion that either I or anybody in my employ would causally and constantly fail or overlook simple notices requiring annual reports is simply beyond possibility.

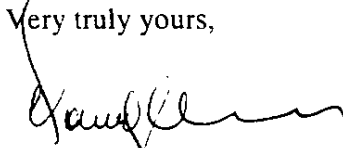

I personally have no recollection whatsoever of ever having seen any such reports over the past several years (which, of course, I would have to sign as owner, officer and director), and I am absolutely, positively certain that those who have been in my employ as secretary and/or legal assistant over that period of time would never fail to bring such things to my attention.

Thus, I am seeking a waiver of the reinstatement fees going back to the year 2001 (which would amount to the sum $1,500.00), and instead I enclose herewith a check in the amount of $61.25 plus $88.75 for each of the years since 2001, and, at the same time, asking that the corporation to which this letter pertains be "reinstated."

Please take note of the address on this letterhead: it has been my address (and therefore, the corporation's address) since November 2004, and any further correspondence, as well as the report form itself, should be sent to this address.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Douglas L. Williams
