To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you out of desperation and exasperation. On March 10, 2000, I mailed your division all of my annual reports under one cover. At that time I obtained a proof of mailing from the USPS (copy attached hereto). After numerous phone calls to your division and repeated assurances that this matter was being handled, I am forced to write this letter as nothing has been done to date. I received both a second notice and a notice to dissolve the corporations referenced below, which both indicate that my phone calls have gone unheeded. Please look into this matter and correct whatever mistakes have been made on your end and reinstate/correct the status of my various corporations. Thank you for your assistance and prompt response. Also, please confirm in writing upon completion of your review and subsequent corrections.

Sincerely,

Lee Seligman

Also please check on L & C Development Corp. #L36758, which was mailed in the same package as the other corporations but nothing, was received back concerning this particular corporation.
