Gentlemen

I recently received the 2000 Uniform Business Report as forwarded to us since our P.O. Box was cancelled approx October of 1999.

Please note after notifying the Post Office of our cancellation and forwarding address, we have encountered many mailings never received by us, to wit my verbal conversations with the 4th Post Office and eventually a personal visit with at least some documents returned to the sender, re sent to us with proof of return to sender. Further many items may never have been returned and countless hours wasted.

Regarding the enclosed notice. This is the first notice we received. We have paid before along with sister corporations that likewise received no notice. The standard fee of $50.00 is enclosed.

Sincerely Richard L. Sisson, Pres
