Dear Sir or Madam:

Yesterday, I received the enclosed notice to file the 2000 Uniform Business Report and the notice indicates that due to a "late" filing I need to send $550.00.

PLEASE! I telephoned your offices this morning and advised that this is the FIRST notice I received this year and I never received the FIRST notice, which I am told is issued sometime around the start of the year.

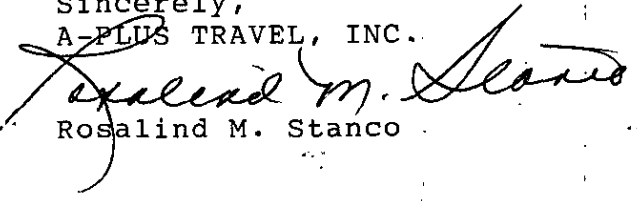

I operate from a 9 x 10' space, all by myself, have no employees and no help. This is a very, very small entity that barely supports itself. A $550.00 filing fee, to me, might as well be a million dollars!

The lady with whom I spoke on the telephone today at your office (Janice) indicated that since this is the first notice I received that I should immediately sign this form, enclose this letter and send along a check for $150.00 made payable to the Dept. of State, which I am now doing.

I IMPLORE you to accept this payment as my compliance for this filing and to understand that had I received the original notice, I would have paid it immediately. As my past records indicate, I have always paid when notified in the past, and have been in business here in this general area, since 1988.

Thank you for your consideration in this regard.

Sincerely,
A-PLUS TRAVEL, INC.

Rosalind M. Stanco
