Re: Profit Corporation Annual Report 1999

Dear Madam,

Our company received this years annual report as a second notice. No first notice was received. Immediately upon receiving the second notice, we contacted the number provided on the form (850-488-9000) and were instructed to send in the completed report along with this letter explaining the situation to you.

We have never had a problem filing in a timely manner in the past and in the future, do not plan to have any reason not to file on time. However, this year the matter was simply out of our hands as we did not receive a first packet and the second notice arrived just days before the deadline.

If there is any additional information or fees that you require, please notify us and the matter will be taken care of immediately. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Bill R. Brown, President
