ARTICLE VII
RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERSHIP

A proposed transferee will not be recognized as a member of the limited liability company, unless the procedures under the operating agreement are followed and satisfied fully. If there is no operating agreement, and if all the members of this limited liability company do not approve the proposed transfer or assignment by unanimous written consent, the transferee of the interest of such member shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of this limited liability company or to become a member.

ARTICLE VIII
VOTING BY MEMBERS WITHOUT MEETING

On any matter that is to be voted on by members, the members may take such action without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a written consent setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting, but in no event by a vote representing less than the percentage of voting power of the members otherwise present (personally or represented by proxy) at a meeting, if a meeting were held. Within 10 days after obtaining such authorization by written consent, written notice must be given to those members that did not consent in writing or were not entitled to vote.
