otherwise provided in the limited liability company's operating agreement. If an assignment of a membership interest is not approved by the Required Unanimous Vote, the assignee (which includes, without limitation, the holder of a charging order) shall have no right to (i) become a member of the limited liability company, (ii) participate in the management of the limited liability company, or (iii) exercise any rights or powers of a member and/or manager. The assignee shall merely be entitled to receive the share of profits and other distributions to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned. Any such assignee shall be allocated and report all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit or other tax allocation (a "Taxable Item") on such assignee's income tax returns each year to the same extent the assignor would have been allocated such Taxable Items and the assignee shall receive the federal and all relevant state Forms K-1 with respect to such allocations. Each Member (and any future assignee(s), including, without limitation, the holder of a charging order) is put on notice that (i) the Managers may make investment decisions that may produce significant income tax liability to the Members and assignees and that corresponding distributions with which to pay such income tax liability may not be made and (ii) that the terms of the operating agreement provide that (a) this is reasonable, and (b) does not constitute a breach of fiduciary duty by the Managers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned manager affirms that, under penalties of perjury, the facts stated herein are true, and the undersigned manager has executed these Articles of Organization this 31 day of August, 2005.
