of this Amendment, and no inferences are to be drawn from either the fact of this Amendment or any of the terms or provisions hereof regarding such means, transactions or arrangements.

E. All of the parties hereto intend to effectively and validly amend the Original Agreement as provided below.

OPERATIVE PROVISIONS

1. All of the parties hereto hereby acknowledge and agree that each and every one of the Recitals above is an accurate statement of fact, and hereby stipulates to that accuracy and agrees to be bound by all of such statements of fact.

2. When used in this Agreement, unless defined herein, all capitalized terms have the same meaning as is ascribed to them in the Original Agreement.

3. Section 1.3 is hereby amended to read as follows:

From and after the effective date of this Amendment, the purposes of the Company, and the scope of its activities, shall be – and shall be limited to – to dissolve, to wind up its affairs, to marshal its assets, and to liquidate, all to the fullest extent allowed by Sections 608.441 through 608.4493, inclusive, of the Act.

4. Section 3.2 is hereby deleted in its entirety.

5. Section 3.3 is hereby deleted in its entirety.

6. Section 3.4 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3.4(a).

(i) Single Manager. The Company shall be managed exclusively by a single manager, who shall be Bill L. Farris, who shall serve until either his removal by the members or his resignation pursuant to this Section 3.4(a).

(ii) Removal. The members may remove the manager, without having to possess, state or prove cause, by the written consent of members holding at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of all membership interests. The removal of a manager without stating or proving cause shall not bar a later claim that the manager engaged in misconduct while a manager.

(iii) Resignation. The manager may resign by providing written notice to all members, using the means of notice stated in the Original Agreement for giving notice to members. If the Original Agreement does not specify a means of giving notice, the manager must give notice by a means sufficient under the Act. The resignation shall take effect sixty (60) days after the date the manager gives notice to all members, or at a later date stated in the notice of resignation.

(iv) Interim Management. Once the resignation of the manager is effective or the members remove the manager, the Company shall be managed by John Eugene Buening, or if the specified interim manager is not available or will not serve, then by any other interim manager chosen with the unanimous consent of the members, until the members choose a replacement manager as provided in Section 3.4(a)(v).

(v) Replacement Manager. The members shall appoint a replacement manager, by the written consent of members holding seventy-five percent (75%) of the voting power of all membership interests. In the case of the removal of a manager under Section 3.4(a)(ii), the same written consent that removes the manager also may appoint a replacement manager. The replacement manager may be, but shall not be required to be, a member of the Company. Once appointed, the replacement manager shall have all of the powers and duties of the initial manager.

Section 3.4(b). Authority of Manager.

(i) Manager's Operational Authority. Except as provided in Section 3.4(b)(ii) below, the manager shall have sole authority to manage the Company, and he hereby is authorized to make any contracts, enter into any transactions, and make and obtain any commitments on behalf of the Company to conduct or further the Company's purposes as set forth in Section 1.3, including, but not limited to, all of the authority that is possessed by a receiver who is appointed by the court, pursuant to Section 608.4492(1), Florida Statutes, in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a Florida limited liability company. This provision does not alter or waive any duty that the manager may have to the Company, under either the Act or the Articles, concerning the manager's exercise of his management authority.

(ii) Matters Reserved to the Members. The manager shall have no authority to take the following actions unless first authorized to do so by members holding at least eighty-nine percent (89%) of the voting power of membership interests, with the authorization to be given by written consent:

- Any action that results in a sale or other disposition of the real property owned by the Company that does not simultaneously involve the complete satisfaction of the first mortgage loan that encumbers such property as well as all guarantees of such loan, without the payment by any party of any amounts of money other than the full amount of the net proceeds of such sale or other disposition.

Section 3.4(c). No Authority of Members. No member of the Company, other than the manager who is appointed pursuant to Section 3.4(a), shall be an agent of the Company or shall have the authority to make any contracts, enter into any transactions, or make any commitments on behalf of the Company.

Section 3.4(d). Amendment of Articles of Organization. The Manager shall have the authority to, and hereby is required to, cause the Company's Articles of Organization to be amended to the fullest extent necessary – and to that extent only – to conform the Articles, as amended, to the Operating Agreement, as amended by this Amendment, and thereby to eliminate or to prevent any and all conflicts or contradictions between the Articles, as amended, and the Operating Agreement, as hereby amended.

7. Section 3.5 is hereby deleted in its entirety.

8. Section 3.6 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3.6(a). Specific Powers of Sole Manager.

(a) The sole manager may, but shall not be required to, cause the Company to engage the services of a competent person or firm to be responsible for authenticating the records of the Company, including keeping correct and complete books of account which show accurately at all times the financial condition of the Company, safeguarding all funds, notes, securities, and other valuables which may from time to time come into possession of the Company and depositing all funds of the Company with such depositories as the sole manager shall designate. Such person or firm may have such other duties as the sole manager may from time to time prescribe, but under no circumstances shall such person or firm have any of the authority, powers, responsibilities or duties of the sole manager.

(b) No contract, deed, mortgage, lease or other agreement or instrument shall be signed on behalf of the Company by any member other than the sole manager. Every contract, deed, mortgage, lease and other instrument executed by the sole manager shall be conclusive evidence in favor of every person relying on, or claiming under, the fact that, at the time of the delivery thereof, (i) the Company was in existence, (ii) neither this Agreement, as amended hereby, nor the Articles, as amended pursuant to Section 3.4(d) hereof, had been further amended in any manner to restrict the delegation of authority to the sole manager herein, and (iii) the execution and delivery of such instrument was duly authorized by the Original Agreement, as amended hereby.

9. Section 3.8 is hereby deleted in its entirety.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Amendment effective as of the latest date on which this Amendment was signed below.
