Re: Rix Clix, LLC, formally requesting to be R&G, LLC

To Whom It May Concern:

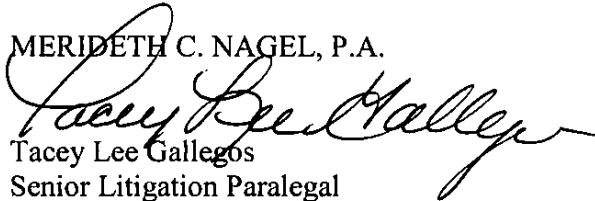

Enclosed please find a copy of your letter dated July 27, 2007. According to your website online search, under the corporate name search option, when I typed in R&G, nothing appeared; however when I was checking the status a few days after I mailed my Articles, I typed R&G, LLC, and noticed that there was already a LLC by that name. Therefore, enclosed please find a new Articles of Incorporation for Rix Clix, LLC, the alternative name for the LLC. I have also enclosed a new Application for Registration of Fictitious Name for the alternative name. Please note, we have already paid for both of these filings; however, when you returned our filings, you kept our checks.

Upon receipt and review, please file the above referenced documents. If you have any questions regarding the above or the enclosed, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Your attention regarding this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

MERIDETH C. NAGEL, P.A.

RECEIVED

We have received your document for R & G, LLC and your check(s) totaling $160.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

We regret that we were unable to contact you by phone. Please return the corrected document with a letter providing us with an address and telephone number where you can be reached during working hours.

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an existing entity. Section 608.406, Florida Statutes, was amended effective July 1, 2007, to require the name of a limited liability company to be distinguishable from the names of all other filings filed with the Division of Corporations, except for fictitious name registrations and general partnership registrations.

Please select a new name and make the correction in all the appropriate places. One or more words may be added to make the name distinguishable from the one presently on file. Adding of Florida or Florida to the end of the name is not acceptable. A search for name availability can be made on the Internet through the Division's records at www.sunbiz.org.

Please note the name of a limited liability company must end with the words Limited Liability Company, the abbreviation L.L.C., or the designation LLC. The word Limited may be abbreviated as Ltd. and the word Company may be abbreviated as Co. The following suffixes are no longer acceptable: Limited Company, L.C., and LC.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6855.
