In order to voluntarily dissolve your limited liability company you must submit Articles of Dissolution, along with the appropriate filing fee to the Division of Corporations. The fee to file including filing information, are available directly from the Division's Web page (www.sunbiz.org). Articles of Dissolution are $25. A certified copy of that filing is $30.00 (optional). Forms are available which you can obtain by clicking on "Print Filing Forms" To request forms by mail please call our Registration Section at 850-245-6051 or reply back to this message with your mailing address.

If you choose not to voluntarily dissolve or file the 2010 Annual Report, the LLC will be administratively dissolved later in the year by the State. You will continue to receive notices from our office until the LLC is either voluntarily dissolved or becomes administratively dissolved.

Thanks,

Tom
