ARTICLE XI
INDEMNIFICATION

This limited liability company shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he she is or was a manager or a managing member of the limited liability company or is or was serving at the request of the limited liability company as a manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the limited liability company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgement, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the limited liability company, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

This limited liability company shall indemnify any person, who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the limited liability company to procure a judgement its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent of the limited liability company or is or was serving at the request of the limited liability company as a manager, managing member, director, officer, employee, or agent of another limited liability company, company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of a majority of the members, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the limited liability company, except that no indemnification shall be made under this subsection in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

To the extent that any manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent of a limited liability company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in this article, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.
