heirs, administrators, successors, and assigns (each a "Covered Person"), who were or are made or are threatened to be made parties to or are otherwise involved in any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding by reason of being or having been managers or officers of the general manager, a manager or officer of the Limited Liability Company, or a manager or officer of such other company, except in the case such Covered Person is adjudged to be liable for: (i) conduct involving bad faith, willful or intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (ii) a transaction from which he or she derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) improper distributions by the Limited Liability Company; or (iv) a breach of the duties or obligations set forth in Florida Statutes, Section 605.04091 or any successor provision, taking into account any variations of such duties and obligations that are permitted to be provided for in the Limited Liability Company's operating agreement in accordance with Florida Statutes, Section 605.0105(4) or any successor provision. Such indemnification shall be in addition to any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any law, by-law, agreement, vote of a stockholder, or otherwise.

No manager (including the General Manager) of the Limited Liability Company shall have any personal liability to the Limited Liability Company or its members arising out of any action, whether by or in the right of the Limited Liability Company or otherwise, for monetary damages for breach of his or her duty as a manager, except for liability for conduct involving bad faith, willful or intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law. This Article shall not impair any right to receive indemnity or insurance from the Limited Liability Company or any third party which any manager may now or hereafter have. Any repeal or modification of this Article shall not impair or otherwise adversely affect any limitation on, or elimination of, the personal liability of a manager effected hereby with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal or modification.
