Article IV: PURPOSES AND POWERS

The general nature of the business to be transacted and which the limited liability company is authorized to transact, in addition to those authorized by the laws of the State of Florida, and the powers of the limited liability company, shall be as follows:

A. In general, to carry on any and all incidental business; to have and to exercise all powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, and to do any and all things set forth herein to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

B. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation carrying on any kind of business of a similar nature to that which this limited liability company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of the Articles; and to hold, utilize, and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.

C. To enter into and make all necessary contracts for its business with any person, entity, partnership, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or of any domestic or foreign state, government, or governmental authority, or of any political or administrative subdivision, or department thereof, and to perform and carry out, assign, cancel, or rescind any of such contracts.

D. To exercise all or any of the limited liability company powers, and to carry out all or any of the purposes enumerated herein otherwise granted or permitted by law, while acting as agent, nominee, or attorney-in-fact for any persons or corporations, and perform any service under contract or otherwise for any corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, firm, syndicate, individual, or other entity, and in such capacity or under such arrangement develop, improve, stabilize, strengthen, or extend the property and commercial interest thereof, and to aid, assist, or participate in any lawful enterprise in connection therewith or incidental to such agency, representation, or service, and to render any other service or assistance insofar as it lawfully may under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, and immunities of limited liability companies for profit.

E. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any of the objects, or the furtherance of any of the powers set forth herein, either alone or in association with others incidental or pertaining to, or growing out of, or connected with its business or powers, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida.

The several clauses contained in this statement of the general nature of the business to be transacted shall be construed as both purposes and powers of this limited liability company, and the statements contained in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause. They shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed as authorizing or permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit the limited liability company to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which a limited liability company may not, under the laws of the State of Florida, lawfully carry on, exercise, or do.

Article V: MANAGEMENT

This limited liability company is or will be managed by managers. The names and addresses of the initial managers who shall serve as such until the first annual meeting of members or until their successors are duly qualified are as follows:

Article VI: TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS

A member's interest is assignable in whole or in part. The assignee of a member's interests shall not become a member of the company, upon assignment, and is only entitled to receive the distributions and return of capital, and to be allocated any profits or losses to which the assigning member was entitled, to the extent assigned. An assignee may become a member upon the approval of the Manager and a majority of the members. If so admitted, the assignee shall have all the rights and powers and shall be subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of the assigning member.

Article VII: MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

The company may, but is not obligated to, issue certificates of membership interest.

Article VIII: Dissolution

In the event of dissolution of the limited liability company, the managers shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the company, dispose of all the assets to The Community Church of Vero Beach (the "Original Member"). If such entity is not then in existence then the assets shall be distributed to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes and which are, at the time qualified as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the managers shall determine to be best calculated to carry out the objects and purposes of the Original Member. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the appropriate Court of the jurisdiction in which the principal office of the company is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said Court shall determine which are organized and operated for such purpose.

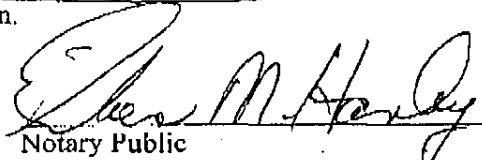

The undersigned, being the original members of the limited liability company, hereby certify that the foregoing constitutes the Articles of Organization of Jefferson Park Holdings, LLC
