ARTICLE V.

The Operating Agreement of the limited liability company (hereinafter the "Company") contains provisions regarding:

1. The nature of the business to be transacted or the purposes to be promoted or carried out by the Company, which shall be to own, operate, manage, develop, and to otherwise undertake such activities as are determined by the Company with respect to its consulting services, investments, development and management and the personal property of the Company, and all business of the Company relating thereto, and for no other purpose whatsoever. If the Operating Agreement is silent as to the nature of the business to be transacted or the purposes to be promoted or carried out by the Company, then the purpose of the Company is to engage in one or more businesses and/or to invest and reinvest its assets, and, accordingly, no distribution would be contemplated. Furthermore, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Managers and Members owning at least One Hundred percent (100%) of the Member Interest of the Company may consent to a distribution, and all distributions shall be in the form as agreed to in the Operating Agreement of the Company unless the Managers and Members owning at least One Hundred percent (100%) of the Member Interest of the Company consent otherwise.

2. The rights of the members to admit additional members and the terms and conditions of the admissions. If the Operating Agreement is silent as to the admission of additional Members, then the Members of the Company shall be permitted to admit additional members upon the approval of Members owning One Hundred percent (100%) of the outstanding Membership Interests of the Company. In such event, the terms and conditions required of new Members shall be determined at that time by a vote of the Members owning at least One Hundred percent (100%) of the outstanding Membership Interests of the Company. A Member's Interest in the Company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except upon the approval of Members owning at least One Hundred percent (100%) of the outstanding Membership Interests of the Company.

3. The rights of the remaining members of this Company to continue the business of this Company on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, and any other event which may terminate the continued membership in this Company. If the Operating Agreement is silent as to the aforementioned, then the remaining members of the Company shall have the right to continue the business of the Company upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a Member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a Member of the Company, upon the approval of any one (1) Member.

ARTICLE VI.

The management of the Company is to be reserved to its Managing Member:

Maria E. Diaz
5700 Collins Ave., #9A, Miami Beach, FL 33140

ARTICLE VII.

The Operating Agreement between the Managing Member and the Company shall be adopted by the Members. Thereafter, the power to alter, amend, or repeal the Operating Agreement shall be vested in the Members of the Company in the manner set forth in the Operating Agreement; provided, however, that the consent of the Managing Member shall be required before any amendment, alteration or repeal of the Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII.

The effective date for this limited liability company shall be January 1, 2021.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles or Organization this 18 day of November, 2020, at Miami, Florida.
