RE: Reinstatement of Corporation
Shah, Drotos & Associates, P.A.

Dear Sir/Madame:

Enclosed please find a check in the amount of $410.00 ($225.00 for 1996 and $185.00 for 1997) for the reinstatement of our corporation.

Initially, I had mailed check number 6249, dated August 26, 1996, for the Renewal of Corporation. I learned that the check was lost in the mail. We were not notified by the State and did not realize that we did not receive renewal of our corporation for year 1996. When I mailed $185.00 check for this year's renewal, it was returned to me with a letter stating that we had not paid renewal fees last year and that our corporation no longer existed.

I spoke with my accountant, obtained check number and requested that the bank research the check. Upon the completion of their research, I requested that the bank send a letter stating that check #6249, dated August 26, 1996, in the amount of $225.00, was never cashed and lost in transit.

We respectfully request that you allow us to pay the fees for two years (1996 & 1997) for the renewal and reinstatement of our corporation.

If you have any comments or questions on the preceding, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,

SHAH, DROTOS & ASSOCIATES, P.A.

Bharat R. Shah, P.E.
President
