10. Regulations and Operating Agreement. At the time of executing these Articles of Organization, the members of the Company shall adopt an Operating Agreement containing all provisions for the regulation and management of this company not inconsistent with law or these articles. The power to alter, amend or repeal the Operating Agreement shall be vested in the members of this Company if decided by majority vote. The members of the Company also may adopt a members agreement containing mutually accepted guidelines regarding the administration and governance of the Company.

11. Date of Existence of the Company. The existence of the Company shall commence on the date of filing of the Articles of Organization with the Florida Department of State.

12. Transfer of Interest. No member shall have the right to transfer any interest in the Company without the unanimous written agreement of all the members, subject, however, to the terms of any members agreement governing such transfer of interest.

13. Certificated Interests. The members' interests in the Company may be evidenced by certificates.

14. Amendments. These articles, except with respect to the vested rights of the members, may be amended from time to time by a majority in interest of the members of the Company. All members of the Company agree to abide by the majority decision and agree to sign the certificate of amendment corresponding to such amendments for the purpose of filing with the Florida Department of State, consistent with the Act.

The undersigned, as member of the Company, executed these Articles of Organization effective as of the 9th day of June, 1998.
