Secretary of State
Katherine Harris

On December 1, 2001 I received from the Division of Corporations a letter stating that my Fictitious Name was not filed because we didn't file a corporation report since 1997. I called your office because this was a surprise to me. I was told that the papers I was suppose to fill out were returned to you from my PO Box 2288, Silver Springs, FL 34489, and that only the 3rd one you sent to my PO Box 2288 was returned to you. I don't know why it was returned everything else seems to get to me with no problems. In 1997 we changed PO Box numbers but you were notified on the 1997 forms that were filed with you (the last one you received). If you notice on the papers that I have enclosed you don't have the address correct in two of the places on the letters. If you couldn't reach me at the PO Box why would you send me 3 letters to the same address (According to the woman I spoke to) and not even one at the other address you had on record at 1720 NE 49th Ave, Ocala, FL. 34470. I have been here since we started business in 1983 and here since we started the Corporation in 1990. Why is it that you couldn't reach me by phone 352-622-1376 at my office Furce Pest Control which you also have on record and has been the same number for 18 years. Or my home phone number which you also have on record 352-236-5835 (according to the women I spoke to). We have paid and filed every year since we incorporated in 1990 and don't have a problem doing so as you would notice if you look back in your records. I don't think you made a effort to reach me and I don't feel I should be charged with all the charges that you want. Your employees made no reasonable attempts to reach me about this matter and it only came to our attention because of the Fictitious Name Filing. Please straighten this matter out and let me know exactly what I owe. Enclosed is a check for 1998,1999,2000,2001 at 61.25 per year $245.00. I cannot afford to pay for someone else's mistake at the price of 600.00.Thank you for you attention into this matter.

Sincerely,

Mr. Kim Furce

P.S. My Fictitious Name also needs to get straighten out they returned my forms but not my check which was all ready deposited and cleared to your account.
