December 16, 2006

Dear Sirs:

I began using Swogger Properties, LLC to invest in real estate in Florida in 2001. I did register the LLC with the City of Okeechobee at that time, but did not realize until this year (2006) that I also needed to register with the State of Florida. Had I known that I should of registered with the state, I would have done so.

I now also understand that I am liable for fines because of not registering at the time of doing business in Florida. Please consider forgiving or reducing the fines, as the error was completely unintentional and I desire to register at this time as required.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Richard Swogger', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
