To Whom it May Concern:

Enclosed please find the Florida Annual Report for 1998 for Jor-Dan Custom Closets, Inc. whose form I just received today. I called back in March requesting a form when one was not received for this corporation. I never received it and today the 2nd notice came in the mail. I called your office and the person I spoke to told me to mail a check for the original amount of $150 with this letter of explanation stating that the first notice form was never received, even after telephoning your offices back in March.

This corporation has filed reports since 1989 and has never filed late and has always received a first notice form. We would have done the same this year had we received the original form or the form when it was requested early enough to file without penalty.

Kindly abate the penalty and accept this form as filed. Thanking you in advance, I remain,

Yours truly,

Susan Freedland
